VOL. 1.

gazing steadily out the window, he seemed the coldness of a stone, of a lava-bed, died out upon the surface, but smoldering with volcanic fires beneath? There are two kinds of cold faces, you know. Birney Graham bowed profoundly as Alice Marlay entered the room. She did not return the bow. She laid one delicate hand upon the back of a chair, and stood face. Each faced the other steadily, with glittering eye, and there was that in

"I stand here your enemy till I die."

Neither said it in so many words, though. The girl at length spoke first,

"To see you, Miss Alice-what else?"

"If I had known you were here I

"I think you would, Miss Marlay," he

She shrugged her shoulders impatiently but did not reply. What she said was true. Birney Graham seemed to have a

"I came here to receive your expresishment, and at the same time to save

He was curiously like a flint, cold and hard as adamant of itself, but with the other materials. Alice Marlay flushed,

"I did not care much after I came know him, for him you have hnnted me deeply there, you have failed, thank me, that one laughs at me, another one in the newspapers. Oh! I could murder

She covered her face and burst into

"You could murder me?" questioned

Birney Graham, coldly, "Do! Death

Alice looked up again, hear tears dry.

been hushed up. What was anything

"I have done nothing but my duty," never will understand law, I think."

me, henceforth I pursue you as you pur-

A faint, almost imperceptible flush rose your race in America, an iron-faced miser,

you till I die."

"But for you," she said, "it would have tears; not gentle, girlish tears, but pas sionate, burning tears.

at your hands would be sweet."

have humiliated me like this?"

"What have you come here for?"

wouldn't have come in," she said.

the look of each which said:

and she said this:

answered, calmly.

mockingly.

HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY., JUNE 9, 1875.

NO. 23.

Published by request. *TIS AWFUL, AWFUL!

1. Death is a melancholy call, A certain judgment for us all. Death takes the young as well as old. He takes them in his arms so cold-'Tis awful, awful, awful!

2. I saw a youth, the other day, Just in his prime, he looked so gay, He trifled all his time away And dropped into eternity-'Tis awful, awful, awful!

3. As be lay on his dying bed, Eternity he began to dread, He says, "O Lord! I see my state, But now I fear it is too late!"-'Tis awful, awful, awful! 4. His parents both a standing round,

With tears a dropping to the ground, He says, "O father, pray for me, For I'm bound for eternity!"-'Tis awful, awful, awful!

5. His brothers and sisters a standing by, A saying, "Dear brother, you're a going

Your days are spent, your pleasure is past, And you must go to your grave at last! 'Tis awful, awful, awful!

6. A few more breaths may be perceived Before the young man shall take the leave "Father and mother, fareyouwell, I'm dragged by devils down to hell!"-'Tis awful, awful, awful!

7. His corpse was laid beneath the ground, With his brothers and sisters a weeping round.

With aching hearts and trembling minds, To think their brother in hell confined-'Tis awful, awful, awful! 8. Think, young friends, on what you hear,

And try yourselves to be prepared, Or like this young man you must go Down to the gates of endless woel-'Tis awful, awful, awful!

9. 0 what a solemn scene is this, To witness such a dreadful case! It makes me shudder at the thought. He has his own testimony wrought!-

'Tis awful, awful, awful! A. MADDOX, 1868.

HIS ENEMY TILL DEATH.

A little time ago I read the plot of Sardou's "La Haine.

"La Haine" suggested to my memory a curious story of real life which I heard not many years since. It was no lurid theater story, but a history of passionate real exactly." life. Would you care to read the strangely-twisted story, I wonder? I take it for granted you would.

There was a tremendous sensation in the Thirty-first National Bank one morning and then paled again with anger. at nine o'clock. The sensation was not a pleasant one. It was of that sort which makes one feel as though he were sudden- down," she said, in a low, busky voice, ly stricken with a chill. The under-clerks "although he was an angel compared spoke in whispers, as do those who are in to you. I knew of what he had done beond assistant moved about with the pale have married him. He was but a poor, face and glittering eyes of one who is la- weak creature, blown about by every imboring under intense excitement. No one pulse. The man I marry must be spoke to him, and the lower clerks glanced a strong man. If you thought to wound askance at him under their eyebrows.

The cashier of the bank had been ar- God! But I hate you, Birney Graham. rested the night before, for forgery, and as I never thought I could hate any huthe second assistant was the one who had man being. All my world knew I was caused the arrest.

Unfortunately the cashier was guilty. He was a young man of extravagant life, says it is good enough for me, because I son of one of the leading stockholders of thought myself above my betters. My the bank, who had put him into the bank name is on the tongue of every goseip and to steady him down and make him learn business habits. But the young man was you.' a rich man's spoiled son. According to the rule of the survival of the fittest there was no place in the world for him. Providence, however, who does not invariably work according to Darwinian rules, for reasons best known to himself, left the youth alive until he half ruined his father, half broke his mother's heart, and wholly committed a forgery on the Thirty-first National Bank. The youth's father, for the sake of the mother, fought desperatelo to get him off, to no purpose. The second assistant, Birney Graham, pursued him with an energy which seemed almost malignity. The defaulter was convicted and sentenced to proper punishment. It served him right. I don't apologize for him. When a thief is caught stealing he ought to be punished, unless he is starying and steals a loaf of bread.

The President of the bank had a daughter, Alice, aged twenty, blonde, petite, as pretty as a baby, and with the will and haughty spirit of a Lady Macbeth. That to cap the rest. She was as pretty as a baby, as I say, but the Lady-Macbeth will and spirit in her gave her delicate pink and white face a look as unlike a baby's as possible. Indeed, so far from resembling a baby, Alice Marlay, blonde and petite as she was, had much the look of a graceful, high-bred, high-spirited boy. This jaunty, boyish look made her all the more beautiful, all the more admired. Oh, ves! Just so! When a pretty girl of eighteen looks boyish, that's all very fine; when a middle-aged woman looks mannish, that's you. Years ago, long before that little, something very different.

But I wander from my strangely-twisted story. I do not wish to do that, This beautiful, proud, Alice Marlay, daughter of the bank President, was be- had nearly made his own. That was ontrothed to the defaulting cashier. On the ly the beginning. From that day down move on. morning her betrothed was sent to pun- your race has somehow seemed to eat up ishment a gentleman called to see Alice mine. Yes, from that day until the same Marlay. He was a tall, slender man, accursed fate brought me across your path young, to be sure, but with a sharp, cold and caused me to love your fair face, from face, which were a faintly-sneering ex- the moment I saw it. That would have haughty face. It wasn't the sort of face pression, as though the man doubted been nothing, only you smiled so sweetly whether there was anything good, or on me that it made me forget that great pealed to from choice. true, or kind in his life. It was a pain- gulf which the world placed between us.

mocking, cynical look. The man was hope apart from you; then you turned on Birney Graham, second assistant at the me and laughed at me. In one moment him. He's very sick, mum." Thirty-first National Bank, the persons you changed for all time the honey of my cashier till he was convicted and sen- lay, what had I done to you to deserve tenced. As Birney Graham sat there this? Was it all nothing think you? I and there ain't no smell of liquor on him. now, leaning his cheek against his hand. come of Highland blood, and a clansman said the coachman, very humbly. never forgets. If you had not done what a man who would have hunted his own | you did, if you had not humiliated me and brother to death, so cold, so merciless he nearly broken my heart, then I should and make a fire in it?" looked. Surely this man had had a bithave spared you when my turn came. I have not one regret, understand. If it ter experience of no common sort. The faintly-sneering expression deepened in his face as he heard a light footstep ap again. This is what I came here to tell across the shoulders with her ridingproaching. Was the coldness of his face you."

She raised her arm slowly, as if it had

"Go out of this house!" she said.

11. Somehow Birney Graham never pros pered. He was not superstitious, heaven knows: but sometimes he half confessed to himself that Alice Marlay's hate seemed looking at him with a haughty, angry to follow him like an evil eye. Alice Marlay's father was his friend, but Mr. Marlay shortly resigned his Presidency of the bank and retired from business. A new President and new officers were chosen, and Birney Graham lost his place. He understood how it came about when he happened to remember that the new President was the father of Alice Marley's most intimate friend. What harm could Alice Marlay do him? he had asked mockingly. He found out what many another has found out to his sorrow, that a woman can do a man no end of harm when she sets her head to it.

Birney Graham had no home worth speaking of. A childish, peevish, old strange, strong power even over people father, who ate opium, depended on him who did not like him. The sneer deepfor support, while a half-sister, cross and ened in his face again, and he bowed vixenish, as only a disappointed woman can be, hung like a mill-stone about his neck. These two, the peevish father and sion of gratitude, Miss Allice, solely. By the waspish sister, constituted the guarmy efforts alone I have been enabled to dian angels of Birney Graham's home. send a dangerous character to a just pun-Truly, as he had told her once, he had not so much peace or joy in this life that your father's bank no end of loss. I am Alice Marlay should have thought worth sure you must be boundlessly grateful to while to take that little away from him. me. To hear you say it with your own He had few friends. He repelled people lips-this is why I am here, Miss Alice, by his cynical coldness, and as the time went on he became more disagreeable and unmerciful than ever. He said to himself he did not care whether he had power of striking fire into the heart of any friends or not. He told himself a falsehood. He did care. Nobody can say the like and tell the truth. He obtained another situation, not s good as the one he had lost, but he was glad to get even that. Then hard times came suddenly, all the world was turned Birney Graham along with it. The luckless young man could obtain no work to keep himself, his peevish old father and vixenish sister alive. The childish complainings of his father and the naggings and goadings of his sister drove him nearly frantic. It was not a pleasant situation for a gentlemanly young man to be placed in. It had been five years since betrothed to that man. This one pities he had the talk with Alice Marlay, but it seemed to him that her hate pursued him yet. Only for her he would have still have held his place at the Thirty-first National Bank, perhaps a better one. He felt like cursing her, and himself too. whenever he thought of her.

At last, with the worry and anxiety. the complainings, the goadings, and naggings, Birney Graham fell sick. As if to insult his pride and his sufferings, one day an Overseer of the Poor whom Birnev Graham had subdued many a time, because he was coarse and talked bad grammer, came in and said:

I had ever done to you that you should "Young man, I think you'd better be took to the 'orsepital."

"I'll die first!" said Birney Graham replied the cold, sneering voice of Birdesperately. ney Graham. "My dear young lady. I He sprang upon his feet and walked about the room. Presently he informed fighting the fight with himself and-lost fear you don't understand law. If I had concealed your friend's misdemeanor. his peevish father and his vixenish sister the battle. knowing what he had done, I should have that he believed he wasn't so very sick been held as guilty as he was. It is what after all. He really thought he would the law calls compounding a felony, Miss take a walk, and maybe something would Marlay. It's really strange, but ladies turn up. He staggered feebly down into the street. The lamp-posts seemed doing "I never thought you worth minding a witches' dance. Birney Graham was before," said the girl, in hot, scornful tones. half delirious with worry and fever. He But you have caused my name -my name started to walk toward the fields and the -Alice Marlay-to be on the tongue of country, thinking crazily that he would every gossip in this city. For this, for the at least get out of the city where they bitter humiliation you have brought on could not send him to the hospital.

"I mean to walk and walk until I fall sued him. You smile your cold, wicked down and die," said Birney Graham to smile, do you? You shall see what a weak himself.

girl can do. Mark my words, Birney Gra-The cool November air struck his ham. From this day forth I shall fight cheek and entered his lungs and stimulated him unusually. He wandered on and on, out toward the open country, over a into his tace at last. "What had you done smooth turnpike road which led he knew to deserve this, Miss Alice? I will tell not whither. At length, when the sun sank slowly behind the western hills, delicate, blonde face of yours began to Birney Graham sank, too, unable to go a haunt idiotic young men, the founder of step farther.

Next morning a rich lady's coachman took from my ancestor a little home he told his mistress that there was a tramp out in the stable, sick, and not able to

"The country's full o' them tramps, mum," said the coachman. The mistress was a slender, petite lady, with a delicate beautiful, though sharp, a beggar or erring sister would have ap-

"Haul him to the station and put him

ful look for a young man to wear. He You drew me on, a poor, awkward, hon- on the train to go back to the city where was a handsome man, too, only for the est fool, until I had not a thought or a he came from," said the lady, sharply. "It'll kill him, mum, for to do that to

"But what'll we do with him here?" who had pitilessly pursued the erring life to the gall of bitterness. Miss Mar- asked the lady, still more sharply. "He's very clean and decent, mum.

> "Oh!" said the mistress, sarcasticaly, "I shall air the best bed-room, shall I.

The man looked at first as if he was uncertain whether his mistress would were to do over again I would do it over discharge him or give him a whack whip if he spoke his mind, but presently he did speak it, neverthele. he could be brought in here on the kitchen floor and a bit of rug put under him. You wouldn't want it said that you let a human creetur die when you could have saved its life, would you, mum?" The lady colored faintly at this. "Where is the fellow?" she asked. The man lay on the stable floor. An old blanket was rolled and placed under his head. Alice Marlay followed the coachman silently, and stood and gazed a moment at the seemingly dying tramp. For this was the country home of Alice Marlay's father, and the lady was Alice Marlay herself, lingering on in the country late in autumn. She stood and looked at the unconscious tramp, as I said. He was very pale, with long black hair, and he was frightfully thin and wasted. He was "entirely clean and decent," as the man had said.

"Yes, have him carried into the kitchen, Brown, and take care of him for the present," said the mistress. "As soon as he is strong enough you can send him to the hospital."

The tramp half-opened his eyes and murmured wanderingly: "I mean to walk and walk till I die .-

They can't send me to the hospital when Something familiar in the look and voice of the tramp arrested the attention of Alice Marlay. She stooped and looked at him narrowly, and almost shricked with "Heaven be merciful!" she exclaimed.

The last time I saw you, Birney Graham. you laughed at me to my face when I spoke of vengeance; now your life depends on my word. I have only to let you die, Birney Graham. I told you I would hate you and injure you your life long." Something in her voice and words seemed to rouse and fix his fluttering faculties -

He opened his black, wandering eyes, and upside down and driven out at sea, and fixed them steadily on her face, with a light God knows what could have been passing through the man's head in his wild, weak delirium. I don't know what he meant, and he himself never knew. But with his burning, black eyes still fixed on the face of Alice Marlay; this is what he said: "The hyena will open graves to obtain

The strong-willed mistress of the mansion shuddered. "Get him into the house as quickly as you can, Brown," she said in a scarcely audible voice. A low couch was brought and the man was lifted upon it. The mistress superintended the removal. "Be careful there!" she said, in her sharp ones. "Are you lifting a pig?"

She lifted his head herself. The man was carried into the genial warmth of the coal-fire, made as comfortable as might be, and a physician summoned immediately. Then the sharptongued mistress of the great house disappeared. She went to her own room and locked herself in. What she thought about during an hour there no mortal knows, but when she reappered she was very pale, and her delicate, proud face

"Housekeeper," said Miss Marlay, have the best bed-room prepared, if you looked like the face of one who has been

"The best bed-room," echoed the housekeeper, doubting if she had heard aright. "That was what I said," answered Miss

Birney Graham lay in the best bedroom for weeks, "hovering between life and death," as the people who write novels say. One day be suddenly came to himself and turned his head weakly on the pillow, toward Brown, who sat beside him, and said.

"Is this the hospital?"

"Does it look like an 'ospital?" queried Brown, indignantly. Birney Graham thought about it two or three minutes before making up his mind. "No, it doesn't," said he finally. "Whose house is it." Brown told him, also that he had been found sick and was taken in and tended | punish him for coming, and then to aplike a president, by orders of Miss Mar-

"What name did you say?" said Birney Graham, feebly.

"Marlay, Miss Alice Marlay," said Brown, speaking as though he thought the patient had lost the sense of hearing.

"Wasn't Miss Alice Marlay married long ago?" asked Birney Graham, still more feebly.

"No, she wasn't and ain't.' replied

Birney Graham turned his face to the wall again in silence. Brown went out and announced to the mistress that her patient had come to his senses. Miss Marlay returned with Brown, a changed, oftened look on her face. She had watched Birney Graham day after day, held his thin hand in hers and bathed his hot brow, and all these days and weeks a conflict had been going on in her soul. Hate cannot last forever; though love

A strange, new, intense feeling growing in the heart of Alice Marlay. It was not hate. Was it love? Birney Graham seemed to be asleep when Alice Marlay stepped noislessly to his bedside. He seemed not to see her or to hear her. But he was not asleep. He was trying to gather strength to open his eyes and come face to face with Alice. After that, when she came in, simply a nod of recognition passed, nothing more. He was dressed and lie on a sofa. Then he sent nished. for Miss Marlay. He thought now he had strength to look into her face, and while he looked thank her for all her kindness to him. She came in softly, a little pale and trembling a little. This man, Birney Graham, lying there helplesss as a babe, so weak even then that Brown could easily have frightened him to death. had nevertheless come to have a strange sweet power over her. She sat down upon a little rocking-chair beside his sofa. He looked at her steadily with his intense black eyes.

"I had thought," he began. Then he stopped. This beautiful face, pale with emotion, this was the face of his old, lost love, his first and only love, whom he had worshipped-ah! God knows how wildly! He turned away from her and buried his face in the cushions, and broke into passionate sobs. He was so weak, so very weak, vet.

The heart of Alice Marlay gave a mighty throb, till it ached in her bosom, then it lay deathly still. She hesitated a moment, a little short moment, then she took Birney's thin face between her hands and turned it back toward her again and kissed him on the mouth.

"Birney, dear Birney!" she whispered, in a voice ineffably sweet and tender. He laid one wasted arm about her, and they both wept together a little. It is very sweet to mingle happy tears. Just because these two were so strong, and proud, and unforgetful-for that very reason they will love each other with a mighty love, which shall endure when common loves are all forgotten, love which shall hold together till death parts them,

"The man I marry must be a strong man," Alice Marlay had said. The man she married had hardly strength to step from the sidewalk to the carriage on his wedding-day. But he was a strong man, for all that, and his name was Birney

Alice Marlay's father was a practical old gentleman with no nonsense about him, and, best of all, no snobbery about him either. He cared precious little for Highland blood and that rubbish, and thought the world was wide enough for everybody, and one person was as good as another so long as he behaved himself. When his daughter's choice was announced to him, he received the news in a fashion neculiar to himself. "Why couldn't she have taken him five vears ago?" said he. "I'm not always thought then she could not do better .-Birney Graham is one of the few men I've known in my time who had a head on 'em. If she had married him five years ago she'd have saved a sight of nonsense and I'd have had a son to help me all this

So you will understand the "hidden meaning" of the remark Father Marlay made when his approval was asked for

"Yes, yes! It's the strangest thing in nature that people can't learn any sense.'

The Value of the Mosquito.

People who voluntarily frequent the haunts of the sanguinary mosquito are not wont to welcome his tiny note of warning, nor the admonition of his pointed and tubular proboscis. We are confident, therefore, that the scientific conclusions reached by Dr. Samuel W. Francis will be welcomed by all who contemplate passing the summer months in the mosquito-bearing districts. The doctor declares it to be his firm conviction that genus culex was created for the purpose of driving man out of the malarial districts. Since, however, man is thick-headed, and often won't go when he is driven, Providence has commissioned the mosquito first to say, she (for it is only the female mosquito that bites) hypodermically injects into the wound a fluid which possesses the properties of quinine. Let us not too closely examine the correctness of the doctor's conclusions. Rather let us, as the season advances, drop off into dreamland in the serene consciousness that the song

the presence of a physician who furnishes his own medicines, makes up his own prescriptions and carries his bill away

which lulls us to sleep merely announced

A Boil on the Nose. It is a little thing, but it is a source of We suppose you have had one? Alnost everybody has. puts in a decided appearance. Your nose century in Delaware County, Ohio. eels tight and straight, and it aches in Minter was a man fond of hunting, a the possessor of a nose.

of the body than another, then be assured hours he came suddenly on a monster there is disease there. A person in perfect health knows no ears, no eyes, no heavy rifle and fired. Bruin fell as if limbs, no feet-they are all concentrated dead, but Minter had caution and exin every part.

Your nose is like a painting-it requires slightly fractured between the cars, which too weak to thank her or to quarrel with a full head of light; and indeed it looks as had only stunned the animal, and as her. A week later he was able to be if it had not only been painted, but var- Minter touched him with the toe of his assumes no particular shape. It twists and placed the muzzle of his gun close to first to one side, and then to the other; his adversary's head, fired again, this time and it bulges out like a broken umbrella, making only a flesh wound in the neck. and the space under your eye is puffed and baggy, and the eye itself shows signs fury. The hunter clubbed his gun and of going under.

Your wife wants to go to a ball or an sulky in consequence, and spitefully says she wishes she had married a man who wasn't everlastingly having boils. And to stab his terrible foe, but this was forced she adds that she might as well have been Mrs. Job, and done with it.

he was left with nothing but his hands to Your small children eye you curiously nose looks just like old Blazo's when he's Bruin clasped him in his vise-like emand tell you confidentially that your tight; and they embrace the first opportunity of asking their mother "if she thinks father drinks."

Everybody you meet asks you if you have been fighting. People in the streetcars stare at you and whisper about small-pox, and move farther off. School girls giggle when they meet you and from small boys you get saluted in this wise: "Say, nose! where are you going with that man?"

How earnestly you watch the rising and swelling of your tormentor! No culturist of roses ever watched the unfolding of some new and rare variety of rosebud with any more solicitude.

How long it is coming to a head! Everybody laughs at your uneasiness and tells you to be patient. How slow the time is in passing! Will it never be next week? Why doesn't the abomination break? Will it leave a scar? What did make it come? Will there be more of them?

Why didn't you appreciate your felicity

when you hadn't any boil? At last, after you have completely given out and have become resigned to a perpetual boil on your nose, the swelling suddenly collapses, the "core" comes out,

"Richard is himself again!"

Freaks of a Georgia Cyclone.

[Atlanta Herald.] Colonel Parker Brown, a well-known asleep when my eyes are shut, and I shape, or more like a funnel, which came of at least half an acre. twisting and turning like the spinning of a Jack Minter recovered, but he carried top, and litterly wrung great trees off at a with him the cicatrices and welts, some uniform length from the ground, like a of which were more than a quarter of an lawn mower. He noticed all through the inch thick, till the day of his death .air smaller bodies the same shape, which | [ House and Garden. appeared to be drawn to the larger one, and as they would come in contact with the larger or parent funnel, the noise produced resembled the sharp crack produced by slapping a board on a body of water. gathered to the large one, it grew larger ly?" The bar-tender promptly turned out as it advanced. Mr. Dick Hightower, who lost one eye in the war, was severely stranger clutched nervously and emptied hurt, a piece of scantling striking him on at once. Theo he drew his hand across the other eye, which, it is feared, will de- his eyes, sighed heavily, looked into the stroy the sight. Mr. Hightower was face of the amazed dealer, and apologeticlifted up and thrown forty yards against ally said: "The sight of blood allers a barn, The chimney to his two-story house was lifted up and pitched top foremost into the well, completely filling it up. The houses on his place were lifted A Western editor appeals to his delin-

from the sills and turned completely quent subscribers by saying: "This week around. It was noticeable that all the we have taken potatoes and pickles on houses were carried off down to the first subscription. Now, if you will bring in floor, as smoothly as if a knife had been some vinegar for the pickles and wood to passed through it. Sixteen families living roast the potatoes, we can live till artieight miles above McDonough, were left chokes get big enough to dig." without shelter. A meeting of citizens at McDonough yesterday, authorized the Judge to draw $1,000 from the county treasury and apply it to the needy, and a committee was appointed to look after them. A piece of plank three inches thick was blown half a mile, striking a fence rail going through as nicely as if it had been done with a mallet and chisel. Other most remarkable incidents are related, which time prevents noticing.

"Please don't," said Augustine Brohan to a person who touched her foot under the table, "My heart is old and my ADVERTISING RATES

One square, one insert on .. 40 co 60 oo One-third column, per year .... One half column, per year......

One column, one year ... For shorter time, at proportionate rates. One inch of space constitutes a square.

The matter of yearly advertisements changed quarterly free of charge. For further particulars, addresss

JNO. P. BARRETT & Co., Publishers,

Desperate Struggle With a Bear.

We have heard many stories of desperuntold misery to the unlucky proprietor. ate encounters with the bear, but do not remember hearing of one more desperate than that told of John Minter, which took You feel it coming long before it really place about the beginning of the present little, needle-like pains, and you are pain- crack shot, and bold as a lion. He would fully conscious of the fact that you are rather meet a bear than a deer any time, and would not change his course to avoid Whenever, for any cause, you begin to any beast that infested the woods. One be more conscious of owning one organ day after a fruitless bunt of several black bear and instantly drew up his in one comfortable feeling that he is sound perience enough not to approach a wounded animal until his weapon had been re-As your nose grows worse you begin to loaded. After ramming another ball consult a hand-mirror, and set it up home he advanced to his game, and game against the window for a better light, it was indeed; the skull had been but boot the bear reared into position to give Hourly it loses its fair proportions, and him a hug. Minter drew back suddenly which enraged the animal to his wildest laid it over the bear with all of his power, but this was soon hurled from his grasp; opera about that time, but you are too much disfigured to venture, and she is him. As a last weapon he drew his broad hunting-knife from his belt and undertook from him by the bear's powerful paw, as had been the implements of warfare before; > contend with this enraged monster. brace, both rolled to the ground, and A fearful struggle then ensued between the combatants; one ruled by unvarying instincts and the other guided by the dictates of reason. The former depended wholly upon hugging his adversary to leath, while the latter aimed at presenting his body in such positions as would best enable him to withstand the vise-like squeeze till he could loosen the grasp. Minter was about six feet in hight, posessing large bones and well-developed nuscles, and being properly proportioned was very athletic. The woods were open and clear of underbrush, and in their struggles they rolled in every direction. Several times Minter thought the severity of the hug would finish him; but by choking the bear he would compel him to release his hold to knock off his hands, when he would recover his breath and gain a better position. After maintaining the contest in this way several hours the happily for him, rolled back nearly where the knife lay, which inspired him with buoyant hope, hut he had to make many meffectual efforts before he could tumble the bear within reach of it. Having finally recovered it, he stabbed the bear at every chance till he finally bled to death, only relaxing his hold when life became extinct. The hunter attempted to get up, but was too much exhausted, and, crawling to a log, against which he leaned, his heart-sickened as he contemplated the scene. Not a rag was left on him, and over his back, arms and legs his flesh citizen of Henry county, came to town and was lacerated to the bones by the claws related further incidents of the great cy- of the bear. By crawling and walking clone of last Saturday. He states that he reached home some time in the night, Colonel Matthew Johnson, an old citizen with no other covering than a gore of of Henry, tells him that when he first blood from head to foot. His friends, who noticed or heard the rumbling noise, he went out next morning to survey the saw a body apparently about the size of a ground and bring in the trophy, said the fodder stack and pretty much the same surface was torn up by them over a space

A pallid and excited individual dashed into a saloon the other morning, and in an agitated voice gasped the following: "A glass of liquor quick? A man has fallen outside and cut his head shockingthe liquor into a tumbler, which the did make me sick?' And then he walked away, leaving the bar-tender staring at the door.

A corn whisk will take anything off your coat, and corn whisky will take off the coat of your stomach.

The fellow who asked for a lock of his girl's hair was informed that it costs money, hair does. Of what possible use is a man who makes it his business to be extremely disagreea-

The only difference between a man and woman's hat is-the price.

Benton, Maine, has a School Board en-irely composed of women.

HARTFORD, OHIO COUNTY, KY.

For Governor, JAMES B. McCREARY, For Lieutenant Governor JOHN C. UNDERWOOD. For Attorney-General, THOMAS E. MOSS. For Auditor.
D. HOWAD SMITH. For Treasurer, JAMES W. TATE. of Franklin county. H. A. M. HENDERSON. of Bourbon county.

For Register of Land Office.

THOMAS D. MARCUM.

. THE presence of ladies at the speaking Monday robbed HARLAN of half anecdotes.

ONE of the mysteries of matrimony the company for $50,000 damages.

sights Passing by a fruit-store on Mar- condition of the good old days of vore. ket street, a bunch of bananas attracted their notice. "Well!" exclaimed he, "these Hartford people do beat bobtail. Jest look, SAL, at them pickles political ideas. In the contest now nailed to a stick!"

world between Hartford and Calhoon tralization, corruption, force bills, suwives. A Hartford man bought his premacy of the military over the civil wife a new dress, and when he presented power, anarchy, and despotism, on the it to her she put her arms around his other. Kentucky, being the first to neck and called him a "treasure." A speak in this great contest, ought to Calhoon man bought his wife a nice give out no uncertain sound, but come dress, but she did not waste any sweet- up solidly for right and justice and free ness until she had opened it, when she government, so as to wield a good and turned on him sharply and said he had wholesome influence in the Presidential just about as much taste as a tobacco canvass of 1876. worm.

IF there is any Democrat in the State who entertains fears for McCreary in bearer proved himself more than a state of condition for match for the SPOTTED TAIL of the Kentucky Sioux. The latter will not the black totem at the door of his wigwam at the horning of the harvest moon police court evidently knows how to get into the green meadows and clover make a distinction with a difference. fields of the Government. Washing-Recently a witness in his court, who ton's letter in regard to the third term was being unmercifully badgered by a was easily understood, and had the right lawyer, turned to the the court and in ring; but Grant prevaricated. quired:

"Jedge, is a savin' of mill-dam a cussin'?"

"Certainly not," responded his hon-

The witness whirled upon the tordam head"-

"Here! Stop! Fined ten dollars!" shouted the court.

"What fur, Jedge?" demanded the astonished witness.

"For contempt-profane swearing in the presence of the court."

"But, Jedge, I axed you fa'r an' squar' ef a sayin' of mill-dam was cussin', an' you sed p'intedly which it was not," protested the unfortunate finee.

"The court sticks to that decision.-Mill-dam per se, the creation of man's inventive genius, the harness he has thrown upon the wild and impetuous hydrogenated-oxygen and hitched it to the car of his industry and making it the servant of his will, this monument to man's ingenuity, o'er which the water flows a Niagara in miniature, to speak of it as it stands a stony barrier to the impetnosity of the flood, this court decides that it is not profane swearing. But for any one, no matter whether he be high or low, rich or poor, witness or barrister, who takes upon his lips within the precincts of this court the honored cognomen of this adjunct of industrial civilization, meaning in his heart another and orthographically different damn, the damn that grinds the grist of perdition, it is, for all the practical migrants, for we could all trace our ity and brutality. That is the Radical used to have to pay an annual tax of rings, monopolies, &c.; enough to have purposes of this court, profane swearing dineage back to foreign blood. He re- idea of equality before the law carried out something over two hundred thousand founded a vast empire; enough to have of the deepest and darkest dye. The ferred to the geological survey now in original judgment of this court is sustained. Fined ten dollars."

attended this year.

THE GUBERNATORIAL CANVASS.

-assembled to hear the discussion. alluding to

THE WAR AND THE LOST CACSE. will rally now, as quick as any in the the lives and property of citizens. State, to defend the Stars and Stripes is concealed in this: Let a man, whose of the Union. He referred in chaste wife dins in his ears from morning till and beautiful language to the growth night the aggravating assurance that he and prosperity of the country, and call-"ain't worth shucks," get killed on a ed upon all men of every political faith to himself the right of an individual, if railroad, and see how quick she'll sue and creed to stand by it and contribute he should see proper by that time-and to its future success and greatness, to pay off its indebtedness, and rid our-A LEITCHFIELD couple came over to selves of hard times and bring back to Hartford the other day to see the city the country and the people the glorious

He was astonished that the Republicans would hold on to certain of their coming on we have a theory of free government presented on the one side, and THERE'S all the difference in the class legislation, unequal taxation, cen-

KENTUCKY'S DUTY.

THE THIRD TERM. He referred to Grant's letter regard ing the third term, and characterized it as a very indefinite style of document: third term. He predicted that Grant would be the next Republican candidate bring home a solitary scalp this hunt. for the Presidency, and thought that Sorrow and disappointment will hang General Harlan was making his present race with a view to the second place on the ticket with Grant. The General has been confined in a dry political THE "Big Judge" of the Rockport pasture for some time, and wants to LET BYGONES BE BYGONES. He said he desired bygones to be byand all the people look to the Constitu- the colored people in person and proption strictly construed as the safeguard erty as well as the whites. to their liberties. I am (he exclaimed) tired of war and bloodshed, and want to see the mineral, agricultural, religious, scholastic and scientific interests of the country developed and fostered, instead of its military genius. I am for laying down all of our animosities, and if elected I will carry out measures calculated to bring about this desirable result as far as in my power lies.

IMMIGRATION.

He took strong ground in favor of immigration, recounted our vast resources in glowing terms, and said, as a legislator of Kentucky, he had voted legislator of Kentucky, he had voted legislator of Kentucky, he had voted legislator of deligner of d for the gubernatorial office occurred at conventions that there was no security posed. our courthouse last Monday. Notwith- to life, limb and property here had kept by Colonel McCreary, at one o'clock, that if immigration were secured Ken-

> CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. He said he was willing to trust the people. He had favored the bill for a purposes. constitutional conventon, but reserved should discover any danger ahead-to vote against the calling of the convention, or the constitution it might adopt. The constitution needed some changes, and he knew of no better time to make them than while the State was under but it had proven otherwise when constitutions had been changed in States under Radical control.

THE COMMON SCHOOL QUESTION.

He said this question demanded our friend of free education. The history Southern States have passed away from enue, and Kentucky had to pay five milof the world's progress is the history of earth "under the ban," and but the other lions four hundred and fifty-six thousand education. Washington spoke prophetically in regard to education. The country's grandeur depends on the la- honored name. borer, the mechanic, the farmer, etc., more than on the silver-tongued orator or the professional man. And these d to make the desired change—to turn ceeded in obtaining their measure) .-They proposed to divide the school fund with the negroes, who are generally a non-property-holding, non-producing facturer of New England, the orange an act devoting the taxes collected from grower of Florida, the cane producer of the colored citizens of the State to the Louisiana, the cotton planter, the to- education of their children; while the mechanic would all enjoy equal rights keeping up our common schools, are

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL. He took strong grounds against the civil rights bill, and denounced it as a measure fraught with evil and unalloyed with good. He called upon General Harlan to lefine his position on this question. He wanted to know if his competitor favored, opposed, or dodged the measure-did he stand with the Administration, favoring was opposed to keeping out foreign im- and the rampant rule of ignorance, venal. at less than two hundred millions. She of acres of the public lands to railroad

"EQUALITY BEFORE THE LAW." standing the fact that the rains of the thousands of immigrants from our State.

There is one thing connected with the Radical party of Kentucky and their colprevious day and night had presented He affirmed that Kentucky was as free ored adherents that appears decidedly eight millions of dollars, which has been are idle, and our tonnage in vessels has McHenry's at our farming community with an oppor- from outrages and disorder as any anomalous. In their platform and swelled until it is now fifty-two millions. decreased largely, while that of Great Rockport at tunity to set out tobacco plants that was State in the Union, and said the Re-speeches they gush over equality-all men Her Governor, elected by the will of her Britain has doubled. not to be neglected, a considerable crowd publicans were not resoluting about the are created equal, you know; there must people, has been prevented from exercis--containing a fair sprinkling of ladies outrages of Pennsylvania, Illinois, and be no exclusive privileges-and yet, when ing the functions of his office by Federal other States under Republican rule their conventions meet, and candidates interference; an usurper fastened upon and Baxter were at war over the guber- Hamilton's at The oratorical tourney was opened where disorders prevail. He augured are to be nominated, the negro is totally them instead; her Legislature, chosen by natorial chair of Arkansas, issued his they even cannot find a corner in their ex- Federal bayonets, the Democratic and legally elected Governor of the State. Ten who spoke for two hours. We did not tucky had a brilliant future before her; they even cannot find a corner in their executive committees to fit him; he is bardly conservative members thereof arrested months afterwards, when it suited his hear the first few minutes of his speech. that she would at no distant period be-When we entered the house he was come one of the great manufacturing his feet and expressing his sentiments in defeated opponents; and all this sanc- in, he sent in a message to Congress to States of the land. If the Republicans their conventions, as one colored brother, tioned and approved by the Republican the effect that Brookes was the legal Govwould only cease their howling about Neal, of Louisville, can sorrowfully tes- Administration. And yet the Republican ernor of Arkansas. Such conduct as this He said: When the war ended and outrages and kuklux, foreign immigrathe Confederate armies surrendered, I tion would soon pour in upon us, and Harlan, when he began to give expression served peace and nourished prosperity dramas enacted in Lousiana and Arkanlaid aside the bitter feelings and preju- our vacant lands speedily become trans- to some plain but rebellious truths on this in her borders, extinguished her State sas have never been equaled anywhere dices of the past and looked to the fuformed to splendid farms and beautiful point. If the Radicals are in earnest in debt, and place it under the control of under the name and pretext of liberty ture. I and my comrades-in-arms fold- and happy homes. He referred to the the sentiments of equality they are coned away in our hearts the memories of successful exertions of Governor Les- tinually breathing into the negro's ear. proved and organized and directed all the the contest, and bowed in faithful alle- lie in suppressing lawlessness, and said General Halan, if elected Govenor, must outrages and plundering that brought his speech, by squelching his vulgar grance to the United States government, his patriotic conduct had not been surand were willing, and have been willing passed, if equalled, by any State Execfrom that day to this, to stand by and utive. If I am elected, he said, I will poses by far the largest portion of his der Radical rule. Now, thank God! all beautiful: all under continued and un-WHEN Gen. HARLAN took to the law defend the country, its honor and prossuse every legal power at my command look for a colored Secretary of State and dage, and those three will soon follow do you want this state of affairs to conand politics it was the ruination of a perify; and the men who rallied around to preserve law and order and peace, a colored Adjutant General. He must their fortunate sisters into the paths of tinne? Then keep the Democratic party first-class "end man" for a negro min- the Stars and Bars during the late war and throw the fullest protection about give these offices to them, or verify the freedom. Not alone in the South has the in power. Do you want to exchange

GENERAL AMNESTY

I am in favor of general amnesty. I want to see all the passions and prejuthing, it is in reality opposed to a gener- Democratic rule for twenty-five years was ringing through her sister States. al amnesty. The cry of "traitor" and one hundred and seventy-two millions "treason," the manufacture of "Southern Last year the Republican Congress approoutrages," are necessary to the existence priated three hundred and twenty-two Democratic control, for it would be safer; of that party. Keeping alive the pass millions of dollars for the expenses of one sions and animosities of the war is the year alone. In six years, from 1865 to He represents and is the standard bearer life-blood in its veins. For ten long 1871, the Republicans collected in the of the party that will continue the high years have the Radicals had control of way of internal revenue tax, one billion the General Government and the Con- two hundred and fifty-two millions of dolgress, all the while professing them- lars, which is ten times a greater sum than selves in favor of amnesty, and yet they the Democrats collected in forty years. serious consideration. I have been al- passed no general amnesty bill. Many Last year the Republicans collected one ways, he said, the supporter and earnest noble and pure spirits of the Middle and hundred and six millions of internal revinridge was gathered to his fathers with land States together only paid five milthe stigma of "traitor" resting upon his lions five hundred and seventy-five thou-men, all who achieve eminence in their exceeded four millions of dollars. One of of currency apportioned to her National avocations, are the results, the proud, their first acts was the reduction of taxa- Banks, Massachusetts is the recipient of trophies of our common school system tion ten cents on the hundred dollars, and fifty-nine millions. In order to carry on platform, and continued These are the of education. The Radicals of Ken- in the first three years and a half of their the war, the Government issued bonds, the stump contest with HARLAN, let a paper that would be construed by tucky wanted to change our present syscommonwealth fifty-nine per cent. Last England capitalists, and immediately exhim dismiss them. Last Monday, at Grant himself as meaning that such a tem so as to embrace the negro, and October our debt was two hundred and South and West are required to pay taxstate or condition of affairs would exist their leaders in the Legislature attempts sixteen thousand dollars. Since that South and West are required to pay taxtime twenty-one thousand dollars of this our common schools into mixed schools has been retired, leaving the present in- made payable in currency, but as the offor such would have been the practical debtedness one hundred and ninety-five ficers of Government, President, cabinet result and working had they suc- thousand dollars. To meet this, we have officers, members of Congress, and the two hundred thousand dollars in United Eastern capitalists who backed them, be-States bonds on deposit in the Bank of came the purchasers of nearly all the bonds America at New York. And we have a Republican Congress declared that they joinders of both gentleman, we are comother assets sufficient to pay off a debt five times as large. We are out of debt class, and thus throw upon the white Kentucky under continued and unbroken citizens of the State the burthen and Democratic rule for eight years, has paid expense of educating the colored chil- off a debt of over four millions of dollars, and for their own profit, saddled upon us dren. I am opposed to this whole and is to-day in a better condition finanscheme, he exclaimed. I am opposed cially than any other State in the Union, to admitting colored children to our whether dominated by Democrats or Radschools. I am opposed to dividing the icals. Every dollar collected in those eight years by the taxpayers of the State gones, and was heartily in favor of con- I so voted in the Legislature, and will can be accounted for. Not a dollar of it sand dollars in currency, to be loaned to has been squandered, stolen, embezzled, the people at exorbitant interest. New servatism and reconciliation, and does ever oppose it. I am emphatically for or lost. He then referred to Southern England secured the lion's share of these not believe the country can be saved applying the common school funds to States where Radicals had as complete banking privileges, of this currency, and without these. He touchingly referred the uses and for the purposes to which control and compared them with Ken- now, when money is scarce with us, so menting lawyer, exclaiming: "Mill, to the recent joint-decoration of Federal they are now dedicated by the law. I tucky. In those States, under Radical scarce that we can hardly conduct the dam my soul if I don't knock your mill- and Confederate graves at Memphis want it distinctly understood, whilst I rule, Legislatures have been disbanded and elsewhere, and hailed these acts as occupy this position, that neither I nor by Federal bayonets, the judicial ermine of it at the East. omens of a better day coming, when prej the Democractic party are opposed to torn from the shoulders of the ministers udices and sectional hatreds would die the education of the children of the col- of justice by the mailed hand of power, out, and universal good feeling prevail ored people. On the contrary, it was the civil law trampled under foot by milthroughout the land; when the manu- a Democratic Legislature which passed stary satraps commanding negro militia, the bill of rights violated, the habeas corpus suspended, the independence of the press crushed and the freedom of speech stifled, and despotic rule held supreme bacco raiser, and farmer and miner and white citizens, in addition to the cost of sway. Carpet-baggers and political adventurers held high carnival and reveled and privileges; and when class and see- compelled to pay all the expenses of in the spoils wrested from the people of against the rich men and the New Engtional legislation would be abolished, the State government, which protects the South. The right of suffrage was snatched from the whites and conferred out of debt, but under "reconstruction" and Radical misrule, her public debt had reached, in 1871, fifty millions of dollars. North Carolina, in 1865, owed nine milons; in 1871 her debt was thirty-four hundred and twenty thousand; in 1871 her debt was fifteen millions. Alabama, in 1865, owed five millions; in 1871 her it? or with the Democracy, opposing it? debt was thirty-eight millions. South or was he for a third party which shall Carolina has been under perpetual Radis have none, but, instead, every bushel of ignore this vital question altogether? cal rule ever since the close of the war, grain manufactured into whisky, one of "Equality before the law" is the slogan and if everything in the State were sold the principle industries of Kentucky, is of our Radical friends. What does that to-day, the proceeds would not be suf- taxed about three dollars and sixty cents. mean? Look at Louisiana, Mississippi, ficient to Liquidate her indebtedness. Be-sisted in the passage of the geological This cannot be done without increasing Mexico affording it the richest commer- pass resolutions to the effect that they bill. He charged that the Republicans taxation upon the whites, from whose cial facilities, opening up to her the com- are desirous of preserving and holding the by their cry of "outrages" and "ku- hard earnings the additional fund would merce of the world, her people forming public land, after they have squandered Louisville, Paducah & Southwestern. Our Courthouse Last Monday.

The first meeting of the contestants | by their ery of "outrages" and "ku-have to be wing, and to this I am op-the grandest, wealthiest and happiest of it all, save the barren soil and snow-ville, daily except Sunday at 8:30 a. m. and arall the States, lies prostrate and bleeding capped peaks of Alaska. at every pore, the victim of reconstruc-There is one thing connected with the tion, Radical misrule, and military out-ignored. They have no offices for him; her people at a fair election, dispersed by proclamation declaring Baxter to be the supporters; and, in that event, we may but three have broken the yoke of bon- broken Democratic rule. Fellow-citizens, suspicion that is growing among the most baleful influences and direful results of this state of things for the condition of intelligent of them that the Radicals Radical domination been felt, but all Louisiana, South Carolina or Arkansas?

> in its wake. NATIONAL FINANCES.

sand. That is what makes times hard here. We pay all the taxes, and New military to the civil power; the party o The Democrats came into power in England absorbs all the class legislation. 1867, when the public debt of the State While Kentucky only gets seven millions es upon everything. They were first should be paid in gold; and thus the depreciative currency was cast to the far- mainder of our report until our next mers and laboring men as good enough money for them. They thus unlawfully, dollars. They passed a National Bank law by which the deposit of one hundred thousand dollars in U.S. bonds, drawing interest in gold, would secure ninety thouordinary business of life, there is no lack

THE TARIFF QUESTION. I and the Democratic party stand opposed to a high protective tariff. Under Republican rule more than two thousand articles of everyday use and wear have been taxed in this way. The taxes on these articles range from sixty to two hundred per cent., and it all comes off the consumer and laborers. They taxed incomes for awhile, but that operated land capitalists and the Radical leaders, and then it was repealed. This high upon the negroes. In 1865 Georgia was protection favors and benefits eight States, while it is sapping the life-blood of the other twenty-nine States. The twentynine States are the servants of the other eight, and these are growing rich from the products of our labor. Our cotton, millions. In 1865, Florida owed two tobacco, etc., are shipped there for manufacture, and it is heavily taxed, while they are protected by this tariff, and allowed to monopolize and realize large profits thereby. Why do we not have protection in our corn, rye, &c., &c? We

THE Press Convention was slimly will draw immigration to us. He was increase of the fund set apart by the State the mighty Mississippi, the "Father of of the public domain is recoiling on them,

OUR DECAYED COMMERCE Under Republican administrations our Elm Lick at

ARKANSAS AND LOUSIANA.

President Grant, in 1874, when Brookes McHenry's at KENTUCKY'S ENVIABLE POSITION.

have no use for them save for voting over the Union, wherever that party has Then put the State into the hands of held sway, the same results have followed Republicans. When the smoke of the Riley's battle shall have rolled away, I am con- Livermore D. fident that the old Democratic banner The last year under Democratic rule will float high and proudly above the dices of the late conflict between the the Government of the United States was field of victory, and that Kentucky will States extinguished. While the Radi- run at a cost of fifty-six millions of dol- be the first to send the keynote of a cal party professedly favors the same lars. The aggregate expenses under universal return to Democratic rule THE NATURE OF THE CONTEST > personal one between General Harlan and myself, but a contest for principles tariff class legislation; continue to squander the public lands; continue the evils under which the people groan, their local self-governments are destroyed, and liberty outraged and trampled under foot in its own sacred name. I represent the the party that will deal out speedy justice to law breakers; the party which requires honesty and fidelity in the transaction of public business from those it elevates to office; the party that will subordinate the strict economy in the conduct of the financial affairs of government; the party o they have given vitality to and guided the steps of the Democratic party from bearer of this party and the defender of its principles, and as such I ask your sup port at the polls.

Owing to the great length of General Harlan's reply, and the subsequent repelled to defer the publication of the re-

Photographs!

ELROD & MATTERN. OF J. C. ELROD'S GALLERY LOUISVILLE.

Have opened their Portable Gallery in Hartford,

for a few days. All who wish to obtain

FINE PHOTOGRAPHS,

or other pictures, should call immediately.

kahn & son. ROCKPORT, KY. Are in receipt of a large and well-selected stock of standard and seasonable goods, such as

LADIES' DRESS GOODS. GENTS' & YOUTHS' CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS. BOOTS AND SHOES.

DRILLINGS & SHEETINGS. BLEACHED & BR. DOMESTICS. and everything usually kept in well-regulated

LOOK AT THIS! Calicoes from 7 to 9 cents: Bleached and Brown Cottons from 8 to 15 cents and all other goods equally low. Call, examine and price our fabries. No trou-Remember the place. KAIIN & SON, aged about 4 years, with both hind feet white and about fourteen hands high; but having no brand or other mark, and which I have apaised at the value of forty dollars ($40). Witness my hand this 15th day of May, 1875. BEN NEWTON, J.P.O.C.

ESTRAY NOTICE. AKEN up as a stray by Wm. G. Bennett, living about a mile west of the Hartford and Owensboro road, seven miles from Hartford in Ohio county, on the Sth instant, ONE BAY FILLY.

Cancer and Sore Eyes Cured.

Those afflicted with Sore E 'as or Cancer would do well to call on can cure any cancer on the surface, if taken in treats upon the system of '

nol7 em

NOTICE.

no pay." Give him a trial.

Wanted to borrow $3,000 for two or three ears, for which ten per cent. interest will be aid—payable semi-annually—note to be due

Railroad Time-Table.

rives at Horse Branch at 2:15 4 Beaver Dam at 2:30 2:40 2:44 " Arriving at Paducah at 8:58 " The up train for Louisville leaves Paducah daily except Sunday at 4 a m. and arrives a 8:45 a. m. 0:02 10:10 10:25 10:35 4 10.45 4 rse Branch at Arriving at Louisville at 4:45 p. m.
Hartford is connected with the railroad at eaver Dam by stage line twice a day.

These trains connect with Elizabethtown at Cecelian: with Owensboro at Owensboro Junction, and with Evansville, Henderson and Evansville, Owensboro & Nashville. The Mail and Accommodation trains are run by the following time-table:

Owensboro at	6 00 a m	8 00 p m
Sutherland's	6.28 "	7.35 "
Grow's	6 36 44	7.27 "
Lewis'	6.48 "	7.16 "
Riley's	7.00 "	7.05 44
Tichenor's	7.10 "	6.55 "
Livermore D.	7.20 "	6.45 "
Livermore	7.25 "	6.40 "
Island	7.37 "	6.29 "
	7.48 "	6.17 "
S. Carrollton		5.57 44
L.P.&S.W.Cros		5.45 "
L.P.&S.W.Dep.		5.40 "
	ACCOMMODATION.
Leaves		Arrives
Owensboro at	2.00 p m	12.00 a m
Sutherland's		11.24 -44
Crow's	2.48 "	11.14 "
Lewis'	3.02 "	11.00 "
Dilant.	9 10 4

10.18 4 9.58 4 9.44 4 9.20 ·· 9.05 ·· 4 17 " L.P.&S.W.Dep.

HARTFORD LODGE, NO. 12, 1. 0. G. T. Meets regularly every Thursday evening in Taylor's Hall. Transient members of the order are cordially invited to attend.

B. P. BERRYMAN, W. C. T. WILLIE LEWIS, W. Seey.

Trains run daily, Sundays excepted. R. S. TRIPLETT, Gen'l Manager.

FIRST Goods

OF THE. SEASON.

WM. H. WILLIAMS, HARTFORD, KY.

Takes pleasure in announcing to the citizen of Hartford and Ohio county that he is

Receiving Daily,

THE LATEST NOVELTIES

DRY COODS.

Gents' and Boys' Clothing,

Mats, Caps, BOOTS & SHOES,

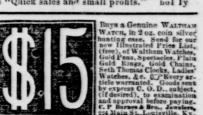

Hardware. Queensware. Staple and

FANCY GROCERIES,

Also dealer in

Leaf Tobacco,

I will sell very low for cash, or exchange or all kinds of country produce. My mott s "Quick sales and small profits." nol ly

GREEN RIVER

WOOLEN MILLS

JAMES CATE, Manufacturer of every description of Woolen Goods.

My mill has been enlarged and improved making the capacity three times greater than last season. We also have a full set of

Clote Dressing Machinery,

For Cassimeres, Tweeds, &c.

and are manufacturing a superior article of JEANS, LINSEY, PLAID, TWILLED

AND PLAIN FLANNEL, BLANKETS, BALMORAL SKIRTS, CASSIMERES, TWEEDS,

Stocking Yarn, &c.

We have large and superior Wool Carding Machinery, and warrant all our work.
Goods manufactured by the yard, or in exchange for wool.

Highest market price paid in cash for wool.

GRANGERS

are solicited to correspond with me. I will make special contracts with you, and make it to our interest to do so. JAMES CATE.

Rumsey, McLean Co., Ky.

WM. GRAVES, WM. T. COX. House Carpenters.

THE HERALD.

IS PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING, IN THE TOWN OF HARTFORD, CHIO COUNTY, KENTUCKY.

-BY -JOHN P. BARRETT & CO., AT THE PRICE OF

Two Dollars a Year in Advance. "

Job work of every description done with of the business community.

The postage on every copy of The Herald is prepaid at this office.

Our terms of subscription are $2 00 per year,

Our terms of subscription are $2.00 per year, invariably in advance. Should the paper suspend publication, from any cause, during the year, we will refund the money due on subscription, or furnish subscribers for the unexpired term with any paper of the same price they may select.

Advertisements of business men are solicited;
except those of saloon keepers and dealers in intoxicating liquors, which we will not admit to our columns under any circumstances.

All communications and contributions for publication must be addressed to the Editor. Communications in regard to advertising, and journey must be addressed to the Publishers.

COUNTY DIRECTORY.

CIRCUIT COURT. Hon. James Stuart, Judge, of Owensboro. Hon. Jos. Haycraft, Attorney, Elizabethtown. A. L. Morton, Clerk, Hartford, E. R. Murrell, Master Commissioner, Hartford.

T. J. Smith, Sheriff, Hartford. E. L. Wise, Jailer, Hartford. Court begins on the second Mondays in May and November, and continues four weeks each

COUNTY COURT. Hon. W. F. Gregory, Judge, Hartford. Capt. Sam. K. Cox, Clerk, Hartford. J. P. Sanderfer, Attorney, Hartford. Court begins on the first Monday in every

QUARTERLY COURT. Begins on the 3rd Mondays in January, April,

July and October. COURT OF CLAIMS. Begins on the first Mondays in October and January. OTHER COUNTY OFFICERS. J. J. Leach, Assessor, Cromwell. G. Smith Fitzhugh, Surveyor, Sulphur Springs. Thos. II. Boswell, Coroner, Sulphur Springs.

W. L. Rowe, School Commissioner, Hartford.

MAGISTRATES' COURTS. Caney District, No. 1 .- P. H. Alford, Justice, held March 5, June 17, September 4, December 18. E. F. Tilford, Justice, held March 18, June

4, September 18, December 4. Cool Springs District, No. 2 .- A. N. Brown, and national. Justice, beld March 3, June 15, September 2, December 16. D. J. Wilcox, Justice, held March 15, June 2, September 16, December 2. Centreville District, No. 3 .- W. P. Render, Justice, held March 31, June 14, September 30, December 15. T. S. Bennett, Justice, held March 16, June 28, September 15, December, Bell's Store District, No. 4 .- Benj. Newton, Justice, March 11, June 23, September 11, December 27. S. Woodward, Justice, March 21, June 10, September 25, December 11.

Fordsville District, No. 5 .- C. W. R. Cobb Justice, March 8, June 19, September 8, December 22. J. L. Burton, Justice, March 20, June 7, September 22, December 8.

Justice, March 13, June 25, September 14, De cember 29. A. B. Bennett, Justice, March 25, June 11. September 27. December 13. Cromwell District, No. 8 .- Samuel Austin

Justice, March 27, June 16, September 29, De. Iv. · cember 17. Melvin Taylor, Justice, March 17 June 30, September 17, December 31, Hartford District, No. 9 .- Thomas L. Aller

Justice, March 12, June 24, September 13, December 28. Jno. M. Leach, Justice, March 26, June 12, September 23, December 14.

Sulphur Spring. District, No. 10 .- R. 21, December 7. Jno. A. Bennett, Justice, March 6, June 18, September 7, December 21. Bartlett District, No. 11 .- W. H. Cummins Justice, March 10, June 22, September 10, De cember 24. J. S. Yates, Justice, March 23, June 9, September 24, December 10. POLICE COURTS.

Hartford-I. H. Luce, Judge, second Mondays in January, April, July and October. Beaver Dam .- E. W. Cooper, Judge, first Saturday in January, April, July an I October. Cromwell .- A. P. Montague, Judge, first vet." Tuesday in January, April, July and October. Ceralyo .- W. D. Barnard, Judge, last Saturday in March, June, September and Decem-

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1875.

JNO. P. BARRETT, LOCAL EDITOR.

We are authorized to announce B. P. Berryman as candidate for Police Judge. Election Saturday, July 31, 1875.

We return thanks to Miss Mary Rowe for a beautiful boquet presented to us last Thursday.

Miss Bettie Eidson, of Owensboro, Ky. lor, of this place.

Miss Jennie Eskridge, of Hardinsburg, ping at Hon. H. D. McHenry's.

We note with pleasuse the arrival of Miss Dora Ashby, of Hopkins county, who will sojourn here for a short time.

Election Ordered.

Yesterday Judge Gregory ordered special election for constable in District for him a liberal patronage. No. 9, to fill the vacancy occasioned by and at the same polls as the general Irish potatoes. election in August.

A Called Meeting.

the Ohio County Agricultural and Mechan-pelled to plant whole fields anew. ical Association will be held at the courthouse next Saturday, the 12th inst., at I earnestly solicited.

By order of the President.

S. K. Cox, Sec'y.

For Future Reference.

YUBA DAM, June 1, 1875. EDITOR HERALD:-I send you the following statement for future reference. "Not that they loved Cæsar less but Rome more.

McIntyre, " " Respectfully, W. H. ROCK.

The saddest sight we have seen in many a day, was a Baptist minister of tion in every instance. neathers and dispatch, at city prices. We have a full line of job types, and solicit the patronage the county, yesterday afternoon, staggering about the streets drunk as any loafer

Masonie Celebration.

The Masonic fraternity are to have a Orphans' Home, at Louisville, Ky. Every G. Rowe, of Spring Lick. Mason, and every benevolent and charitable person in the county, ought to attend and swell the receipts as large as possible. The Home has sustained a heavy loss re- all who wers ready to pay, and impresspublic will be assured of good fare when Resolutions Adopted by Stony Point Grange, No. 1499.

At a meeting of Stony Point Grange, No. 1499, Ohio county, Ky., the following resolutions were presented by J. D. Byers, and adopted by the Grange:

Resolved, That we desire to lay down all the exciting political hobby-horses improved when she returns. which have caused so much strife and division and distress in our country, by carrying corrupt men into office, and that we heartily endorse the sentiment taught in our organic law, that the Grange is not a political organization; but we believe that the principles we teach underlie all true politics, and if properly carried out will tend to purify the whole political atmosphere of our country, and fill our offices with sound, honest men, in place of corrupt partisans and demagogues. Resolved, That we will not vote for any man for office who will not pledge himself to do all in his power, consistent with reason and honesty, to lighten the burthen of the farmer and protect his industrial interests, to oppose bribery o every description, and the unreasonable high salaries of our officers, county, State

Resolved, That we will not assist in any convention to nominate for office any man of known corrupt morrals, but will work for a speedy reform in all departwe solicit the co-operation of all honest men in the great work.

Adopted May 15th, 1875. J. D. BYERS, Master. G. M. Rowe, Sec'y.

FROM BUCKHORN.

BUCKHORN, KY., May 31.

EDITOR HERALD .- Seeing a "Letter Ellis District, No. 6 .- C. S. McElroy, March from Buckhorn" in your issue of May 9, June 21, September 9, December 23. Jas. 26, calls to my mind a little incident Miller, Justice, March 22, June 8, September which occurred a few weeks since. I was few miles from Hartford, I overtook a

He seemed to think that Buckhorn that it was he that wrote the letter from Buckhorn, if we had not met a stranger. who saluted me with a bluff "Good even," Wedding, Justice, March 19, June 5, September and my companion with, "How are you. Sam?" The one that wrote the letter from Buckhorn signed his name "John."

When we arrived at Buckhorn, he pro ceeded to show me all the places of importance. When he had told me where each family lived in Buckhorn, and what each one did for a living, I told him it was not much of a place after all. "This aint all of it," said he, "there is a house

The two tobacco factories John speaks and as that was not more than three ness is being done in them now. "John" says the crops look well for the season "John" says that a busybody is like a rich cheese-full of little things. I suppose that is the kind of cheese the popular merchant keeps for sale.

Yours.

OUR CANEYVILLE LETTER.

CANEYVILLE, KY., June 7. Messrs, A. G. Rowe & Bro., of Spring business at R. & Bro's. old stand. Messrs. Ky., is spending a few days in town, stop- C. & D. are men of means and business and learned disciples of Blackstone are Elizabeth in an equivocal position. capacity, and we hope as such that they disagreed as to one half the issues of One day Mrs. Morse, in a fit of anger, may meet with success.

> DR. APNETT. of Forks of Rough, will locate at this place ere long to practice his profession. among us, and while so doing promise offence incarcerated for years, and in

THE COLORADO POTATO BUG the death of Francis R. Black. The has made its annual appearance in this election will be held on the same day vicinity, and is doing great damage to the

THE CUT WORMS. The young corn in this section is being destroyed to some extent by cut-worms-

CORRECTION ABOUT THE JAIL. o'clock p. m. A full attendance is very the contract for building our new jail was er organizations nor combinations for retaken by a gentleman of Brandenburg, at lief, but, on the other hand, each one of $8,762; and before some critic accuses us must take it home to ourselves, first intentionally.

will not be a candidate.

THE NEW CONSTABLE.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT. were disposed of, and among the profes- is to execute it. As an instance, our sional gentlemen in town were W. R. grand celebration at Cromwell, in this Haynes, of the Grayson County Herald, county, on St. John's day, 24th of June, G. W. Stone, J. M. McClure, jr., and avocation takes no interest in the schools, 1875, for the benefit of the Widows' and other lawyers of Leitchfield, also Mr. A. does as little as possible-just enough to

COLLECTING THE TAXES.

REV. L. B. DAVIDSON they learn that John Wile is to get up preached a very interesting sermon Fri- allowed to continue longer, but the stanwas small, but attentive. J. T. N.

minds of all who were not ready.

Mrs. Vaught, our kind hostess, starts to-day to visit her relatives in Christian county. We hope her health will be communication, we attempted to give It is regarded in the light of coming dissome reason why we could not, by legis- rect from Richards himself. It is as follation, give our people a just, equitable lows: and permanent rate for the use, hire, or After little Paul's death, in 1868, forbearance of that root of all evil, money, Richards frequently met Beecher at or its representative, the paper rags Tilton's house. He became impressed, proper has long since ceased to circulate his visits were not purely pastoral. Finalas such, but is a commodity of commerce, ly, he went to the Union office and disand is bought and sold in all the United closed his apprehensions to Tilton, but States marts just as cotton, wheat, and Tilton was not alarmed. Richards rethe Pacific States, and there they always alleged confession to her husband. This have the "bonanza" in the money mar- time he was incredulous, for he had only ket, for it is all coin and does not fluctu- attributed to her breach of propriety with. ate, a dollar is a dollar, in fact.

For the Hartford Herald. "HARD _TIMES."

always lurking in the back ground. on my way home from Hartford to Buck- in legislation, but in the intelligence, in- ed the crime she had committed with her Hartford District, No. 7.—Jno. P. Coope-, horn, never having been there before. A tegrity, honesty, economy, and financial pastor. She pleaded the excuse of Paul's skill of the people generally. We are gentleman on horseback. We chatted not without hope, however, that even in her affliction; of his great interest in her along from there to Buckhorn very social- this direction legislation may be indirect- occupations; of his encouragement of her its of useful results. Law cannot create bore him. She argued that she had done was the only place of importance in the prudence where it does not exist, but it but little in repayment by yielding her county, and I should be inclined to think may, in some cases, call into action pru- body to his request." "I love him," she just over the hill there, you havn't seen way will profit thereby. Rid our laws as forgive her. This convinced Mr. Richards thereby you will render them less liable her as to her future course. Their conof were not carried on by any one then, to the hundred and one constructions versation was unrestrained, and her guilt which the courts almost daily put on often referred to. His advice was: "Acweeks ago, I don't suppose much busi- them, and then it will be that in most knowledge your transgression and try to What does he think of wheat and oats? around them as was originally-by those course and, upon her refusal to obey him. is visiting Misses Sallie and Jennie Tay- Lick, have sold their store and goods to and, in some instances, contradictory, glad only to be asked as to personal knowl. Messrs Chick & Dent, of Leitchfield, who discrepant, and such a mass of undefined edge, and so his testimory was trifling. have established a branch store of their "stuff" that the lawyers themselves know He only told of suddenly opening the but little about it, and the most profound parlor door and finding Beecher and 1875, it will distribute impartially among its bel of pettifoggers. All of our laws should be so framed as tedly to her mother and begged to know the trath. Mrs. Tilton then confessed the subscribers and club agents. Circulars with facts to her daughter. to favor economy and despatch in their the trnth. Mrs. Tilton then confessed the We thank the Doctor for easting his lot execution, not keep one charged with an facts to her daughter. painful suspense, and at the same time involving the State in untold thousands of debt, which we are heavily taxed to pay. It is our opinion that it would be well to revise and in many respects to change our entire judicial system. This class of legislation is all that will in any way help to relieve our present or avert A called meeting of the Stockholders of even so much that some farmers are com- future financial troubles, and this would necessarily be very slow, but we think would help some. As before intimated, In our letter last week, we stated that we must not look to any political or othus of lying, we will say the amount was set our own house to "rights" and then $9,197, and that we erred $435, but not by patient industry and economy success is made doubly sure.

We have too many soft hands, and if We regret to learn that Warren Purcell, I was not afraid I would wound the vanof whom we spoke as a candidate for the ity of some young aspirants I would add, Legislature, in a previous communication, soft heads, too. Young America thinks he knows it all, and he has a great deal to learn before he is in a condition to Fine Toilet Soaps, Fancy Hair and Tooth-Mr. J. C. Milligan who was elected learn anything, and whenever he can be constable of this district, has entered on brought to that point, there will be great the duties of his office, and gives satisfac- hopes that he can be started off on the right foot. To do this, we should at once go to work to improve our Common Last Saturday was Esqr. Eskridge's School System, though the system is not court day at this place. Several cases so much at fault as those whose duty it Commissioner rests on his oars, lounges about Hartford, or pursues some other enable him to "fob" the salary-and that is all he cares for. The trustees are gen-Deputy Sheriff A J. Layman was in erally inefficient, and a large majority of Deputy Sheriff A J. Layman was in town last Saturday, receiving taxes from the teachers know as little about their four rooms, a good stable with five stalls and The Home has sustained a heavy loss re-cently, by a severe storm, damaging the building to the extent of $30,000. The minds of all who were not ready. teach, and a great many of them care less. This state of affairs should not be day night, from the text: "Cast away dard of tenchers should be immediately from you all your transgressions where- raised, both in their aptness to teach and by ye have transgressed." The audience in their literary qualifications, and their moral character should be clearly scru-SUBSCRIBER.

MRS TILTON'S SIN.

Her Brother Makes a Startling State ment of Her Criminality.

[N. Y. Special to the Chicago Inter-Ocean.] A brother-in-law of Joseph H. Richards, who testified in the Beecher trial adversely to his sister, Mrs. Tilton, makes a state-In the closing paragraph of our last ment for publication in the Sun to morrow.

which we now use in its stead, for money by the general manner of Beecher, that lieit an examination of our tobacco, except in some two or three of mained passive until after Mrs. Tilton's out criminality. He, however, influenced Our legislation, it is true, has as a gen. his mother, Mrs. Morse, to question her eral rule been damaging and deleteorius A few days afterward Mrs Morse reportto both agriculture and commerce, and ed to him that Elizabeth had confessed has been one of the many causes which adultery with Beecher. He waited, still ments of government high or low, and brought on our present financial troubles, disbelieving, for further proof, or for his which has caused business to lag and sister's denial. In the fall of 1870 for country produce, paping the highest marke price. wane from Maine to Texas; but, on the Elizabeth visited his home in Mont Clair, other hand, it is impossible to recover N. J. Then he told his wife to talk with from a financial crisis by means of legis- Mrs. Tilton about the current stories, but lation. You may lap off and trim up the Mrs. Richards' courage failed whenever ragged edges, but so long as people give she tried to broach the subject. When and take credit, and have the power to Mrs. Tilton went away, Mrs. Richards involve themselves in monetary liabilities rode with her to the depot. On the way beyond their means of liquidation, so Mrs. Richards told her sister-in-law what ong will financial panics be probable and she had heard from Theodore and Mrs. Morse, and implored her to tell the truth. The true preventive is not to be found Mrs. Tilton, bursting into tears, "confess death; of Beecher's tender sympathy in ly productive within certain narrow lim- literary aspirations, and of the love she dence which now lies dormant. Further- cried, "and will die rather than harm more, there should be a well-defined shall come to him." Mrs. Richards stringent legal limit to credit. The man deeply moved, offered such consolation who contracts debts beyond a reasonable and advice as she, in her bewilderment, estimate of his ability to meet them. commits an act of fraud for which he should the depot. A day or two later Mrs. be punished. The law should so regard Richards received a letter from Mrs. it, and make the penalty severe and op- Tilton, expressive of the writer's grief, and erative. Make a law to prevent imposi- assuring the recipient that, though she tion and rascality, if possible means for had always loved her as a sister, now she the detection and punishment of fraud, worshipped her ten thousand times more and the industrious honest men who try for being noble enough to listen to the sto to earn an honest living in a legitimate ry of her sin, understand her position, and much as possible of technicalities, and of his sister's guilt, and he counseled with cases the guilty will be punished, and the live it down." Yet he then felt that her nnocent will have the protection thrown love for Beecher would prevent such a who set our present systsm on foot-in- he ceased his advice. He seldom saw tended; but it has in modern times been her, and their chance meetings were unso much tampered with by legislators, and pleasantly constrained. When he was so many and often conflicting construct summoned before the Plymouth commitbe sold at the very lowest cash price. tions put on it by a judiciary who, we tee he went to Elizabeth and asked what with shame confess, have not in a few in- he should do. She told him he must go; stances been corrupted-at least there are that his refusing would be her condemnagrounds for believing such is the case- tion; but he must tell nothing. He did until our whole system of jurisprudence so, refusing to answer the questions put has become so mystified and complicated, to him. On the stand in the trial he was > common law, to say nothing of the Bar let drop the secret in the presence of Florence Tilton, who went at once exci-

> > ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY

LIVERPOOL

Security and Indemnity. CAPITAL, -$10,000,000 GOLD. CASH ASSETS, OVER $12,000,000 GOLD.

BARBEE & CASTLEMAN, General Agents,

CASH ASSETS IN U. S., $1,837,984 GOLD. Keeps constantly on hand a large assortment Losses paid without discount, refer to 12th conof all kinds of Groceries and Confectioneries which he will sell low for cash, or exchange dition of Company's policy.

> I will also pay the highest eash price for hides, sheep pells, eggs, butter, bacon, potatoes, nol ly sire. Passengers set down wherever they debeans, etc. beans, etc.

BARRETT & BRO., Agents, HARTFORD, KY.

Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN.

HARTFORD, KY.

Dealer in

Drugs, Medicines and Chemicals,

Brush es, Perfumery and Faney Toilet Articles, Trusses and Shoulder

Garden Seed.

Pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes

Letter-paper, Pens, Ink, Envelopes, Glass Putty, Carbon oil, Lamps and Chimneys. Physicians' prescriptions accurately com-

Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Dye Stuffs,

For Sale.

A house and lot in Beaver Dam, containing corn-crib a good young orchard of peach

New Goods! New Goods!

• FOR

L. ROSENBERG & BRO. Mammoth

> SPRING AND SUMMER SETTEDE IX!

Every department in our stock is full and our

Lo west Notch!

We are confident that no other house will do

GOODS AND PRICES before making your spring purchases, believing that it will pay you to do so. n ol5 tf

A. T. NALL.

HARDWICK & NALL.

DEALERS IN DRY GOODS, GROCERIES. HATS, CAPS BOOTS, SHOES, HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, &c.

Which we will sell low for eash, or exchange

JOSEPH VAUGHT,

BLACKSMITH,

HARTFORD, KY.

All kinds of Blacksmithing done in good style and at the lowest price for cash only.

HORSE-SHOEING. made a specialty. Will shoe all round for $1 .2

Plow Stocking

GENERAL WOODWORK. The undersigned would- respectfully announce to the citizens of Ohio county, that they are now prepared to do all kinds of WOODWORK at their new shop in Hartford. They have se STOCK PLOWS.

WAGONS AND BUGGIES. and will make and furnish COFFINS AND BURIAL CASES at the lowest possible prices. Call and see u PATRONAGE SOLICITED, nd satisfaction guaranteed. By close applicaion to business we hope to merit the support of our friends, MAUZY & HURT. Jan. 20, 1875.

JAS A. THOMAS. GEO. A. PLATT.

JAS. A. THOMAS & CO.

HARTFORD, KY Dealers in staple and fancy

DRY GOODS. Notions, Fancy Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps. A large assortment of these goods kept constantly on hand, and will AGAIN!

LOUISVILLE WEEKLY

COURIER-JOURNAL

Continues for the present year its liberal ar

$10,000

on application.

Terms, $2 60 a year and liberal offers to clubs. President Courier-Journal Company Louisville, Ky.

Dealer in Groceries and Confectioneries. HARTFORD, KY.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

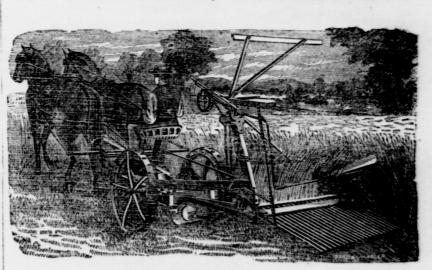

OUR SPECTACLES

perfectly transparent (will cut glass like a diamond) eive a finer polish and always retain it. One pair ** One pair terefully suited to your eyes w last as long as five poirs of the best glass, besides preserving the sight almost unimpaired at that time. By our new system for testing the sight, we are enabled to suit any eye so accurately that no injurious effects will follow. We repair Spectacles and Eye Glasses, and insert Pebbles or the best Glass Lenses in old frames. Our Bi-Focal Spectacles are for old people who require spectacles to see far off as well as near by only one pair being required. To persons who cannot call on us we send our new illustrated Price List which shows how to order.

C. P. BARNES & BRO., Opticans.

Main st., be. Sixth and Severth (Louisville Hotel Block.) Leuisville, Ky.

ATTENTION, FARMERS!

THE ADVANCE:

This machine stands in merit far ahead of all competitors. In fact there is no machine fit to be called its competitor. We have improved this machine very much during the past year, preserving however, the many points of excellence which have made it so d servedly popular in the past. We have replaced the Double Wooden Frame by a single one, substituting for the Auxiliary Frame an iron drag bar, thus making the machine much lighter and handsomer, without lessening its strength and durability, and at the same time retaining all the advantages of the Double Frame. We have also improved the Raking apparatus, and we have now the best Rake we have ever made, which is equivalent to saying that we have the best in the world.

A Farmer Buying the "Advance"

aves money by doing it, for the following reasons:

1st. Because, being a strong and durable machine, it will outlast at least two of any other make, and with less cost for repairs during the same period.

2nd. Because, by its efficient work, it will have saved during its use hundreds of bushels of grain that would have been lost with any other Reaper.

3d. Because, being always reliable and doing its work under all circumstances, it will have saved his own and his binders' time, to say nothing of the saving of annoyance and trouble. The best is always the ch, apest.

BARNES & TAYLOR, Agents for Ohio Co.

BEAVER DAM, KY.

J. F. COLLINS. HARTFORD RETAIL MARKETS.

Corrected Weekly by Wm. H. Williams HARTFORD, KY., May 11, 1875. Apples, dred, & bush ..... $ 1 00 Apples, green, P push .... 15 Beans & bush-..... 1 25@ 1 50

Brooms, & doz..... 2 40@ 3 50 15@ 25@ 20 40 Butter, 7 th..... The Highest Market Price. Candies & tb ... 25 Candles, ? Ib ..... Coffee, 7 tb..... Cheese, 7 th. 25 1000 Eggs, & doz..... Furs, raccoon..... 1 00@ 1 75 6 00@ 7 00

Furs, mink ..... Flour, P barrel ..... 75@ Hay, $ 100 fb ..... Aides, green, salted, ? the 15 100 JOHN P. TRACY & SON. Lard, 7 tb ..... 20 1 25 Lard oil & gallon .... UNDERTAKERS, 80

1210 20

1 8000, 2 00

124

1000.

 $\frac{1210}{17\frac{3}{4}}$

20

60

Lime, P barrel..... Meal, bolted, bushel. 75@ Meal, unbolted, & bushel 75 75(@ 1 00 Molasses, 2 gallon..... 1 50(a) 2 00 8 50@10 00 4 25@ 5 50

Nails, P keg, 10d...... Oysters, P can..... Onions, P parrel..... Potatoes, Irish, & bushel. Peaches, dried, bushel. 1 50@ 1 75 Rice, 7 tb. .....

Salt, & barrel ... Lugar, N. O. 7 tb ......

Sugar, C., 7 th....... Sugar, crushed pow'd, 7 th Soap, 7 lb .....

Soda. 7 to. Tallow, P tb ..... Tar, P gallon ..... 1 5000 2 00 75@ 1 50

Wedding Rings furnished to order promptly; also Set Rings, with Amethist, Garnet, Topaz,

Moss Agate, Pearl or Diamond settings. Plain

Gold 18-kt. Rings from $3 to $15 each. In or-dering, measure the largest joint of the finger you desire fitted with a narrow piece of paper, and send us the paper. We inscribe any name, motto, or date free of charge. Rings sent by Money Order, or Registered Letter. Refer to George W. Bain. C. P. BARNES & Bro., Jewelers, Main st., bt. 6th & 7th, Louisville, Ky.

THE CROW HOUSE,

Opposite the Courthouse

HARTFORD, KY.

JOHN S. VAUGHT .... PROPRIETOR.

low prices. The traveling public are respectfully invited to give us a share of patronage. Every exertion made to render guests comfort-

Comfortable rooms, prompt attention, and in presents, comprising greenbacks and nearly one thousand useful and beautiful articles.

The Courier-Journal is a long-established live, wide-awake, progressive, newsy, bright Money Order, or Registered Letter.

Daily edition $12. Postage prepaid on all papers without extra charge. Address W. N. HALDEMAN, L. J. LYON.

STAGE LINE. Mr. Vaught will continue the stage twice a at a day between Hartford and Beaver Dam, morning and evening, connecting with all passenger trains on the L. P. & Southwestern railDEALER IN

GROCERIES, COFECTIONERIES, &c., &c. COUNTRY PRODUCE

Romember the place, west side public square posite the court house, Hartford, Ky.

Bought at

HARTFORD, KY. Manufacturers and dealers in all kinds of wooden coffins, rom the finest rose wood easket to the cheapest pauver coffin. All kinds of coffin trimmings constantly on hand and for sale.

Keep a fine hearse always ready to atten d

Wagons and Buggies, constantly on hand or made to order. Partie-

> E. SMALL at the TRADE PALACE. HALTFORD, KY.

Has just received a large and well selected

DRY GOODS,

LADIES DRESS GOODS,

Mens' and boys' CLOTHING.

Ladies' and gents' HATS:

of all grades and sizes.

NOTIONS. Special bargains in

White Goods,

A choice lot of Ribbons at a big discount. With many thanks for past patronage, I With many thanks for puriting the bope, by fair dealing, to merit a continuance E. SMALL.

EDGINGS, INSERTINGS, &C.

FOR SALE.

A government land warrant for services ren-dered in the war of 1812, for 160 acres of land,

REASONABLE PRICE.

For further information apply to J. M. Rogers, Beaver Dam, Ky., or John P. Bairett Hertford, Ky.

Sweet Potato Culture. SOIL AND PREPARATION.

teen inches high.

PLANTING.

ten to fourteen inches apart, on freshly-made ridges. The planter should be provided with a bright, sharp mason's trowl, which he grasps in his right hand, straddles the ridge, picks up a and presses the earth firmly to the ness in use on a farm should be oiled plant with the right hand, putting his twice each year, in the spring and fall. weight on the arm, without letting go It should be taken entirely apart, the the trowel, and while doing so picks places where sweat and dirt have colup another plant with his left hand lected cleaned with a chip, or an old ready to repeat the operation.

every way the best manner of proceed- been dissolved. As they are washed ing. Great care must be observed to the straps should be hung on a pole to who accompanies her about the premhave the plants well firmed; the earth dry. When the outside is nearly dry, ises, escorts her to the house, and quican not be pressed too close to the roots but before the moisture is all out of the etly waits for her until she makes her of any plant, while if not well firmed, leather, the oil should be applied. This exit, and then wanders off happy and and dry weather follows, the plant is may be done with a clean paint brush, almost sure to be lost.

AFTER-CULTIVATION.

previous care and expense will avail another light coat may be applied when nothing. I have found it the best, and the first one is well dried in. This is ery rain as the soil is fit to work, the a good quality of oil. Poor oils are of ground should be stirred with some im- little use, and sometimes are injurious. row, so as to destroy the weeds as soon for leather. will kill beyond resurrection. My be accomplished, and are sufficient; by June. that time the plants will be growing so As soon as the plants get large rapidly as to cover the ground in a enough to be out of the way short time and prevent all further of the striped bug, I thin out to growth of weeds. Whatever plan or four plants to the hill. I cultivate instrument is used, it is of the greatest them frequently, and hand-hoe them importance to never let the weeds get two or three times before the vines a start, as a man can do at least four commence to run. In this vicinity the times as much while they are under price ranges from 50 cents to $1 per half an inch high as he can after they hundred, and the product of an acre but crockery in color-dark blue-all are over two.

DIGGING

is a costly operation as performed by many persons. The best and most expeditious way I have vet tried is to take a large two or three horse plow; set it as much to land as possible; attach a rolling coulter, setting it to land about two inches; straddling ridge with your team and turn it over with the plow. The coulter will cut the vines completely if kept sharp, and the plow inverts the whole ridge. The potatoes remain hanging together on the vine, and the points sticking up, and by taking hold of one the whole hill can be pulled up. They should and laid in piles. The greatest care must be observed not to bruise the potatoes, as the bruises cause rotting soon after .- E. A. Riehl, in Rural World.

Swine Management.

year-old sow can eat a great deal fas-ter than the gilts. Therefore, if the ance of bloat had gone, and the heifer to the part, and the wound will become to the part, and the wound will become two kinds are kept together for breed. was well.

THE HERALD. ing purposes, the matured sow will become too fat to do well, and the gilt, or young sow, will lack the food so essen-

Almost any soil will grow sweet floor, it would be worse than no house 106 bushels (of ears) to the acre. Mr. potatoes. Some kinds do better on cer- at all, for the reason that they should Roberts states, as the result of many tain soils than others; but, on the whole, sleep dry and be free from dust or wet. experiments prior to these, at the Iowa I find all kinds do best on rath- And, having a good floor to sleep on, Agricultural College, that the heaviest er dry soils containing a considerable they will not smother each other. In crops of corn were made by growing amount of clay, and if enriched with cold weather, for the purpose of three stalks to a hill, and that two stalks manure, the yield will be greater in warmth, they should be bedded with to a hill will produce more than five proportion. To have the soil in prop- good wheat straw. But as often as stalks. If every stalk produces an ear, er condition at planting time, it should once in three or four weeks, the old and corn is planted three feet apart each have been plowed once or twice during bedding should be removed, scattered way, there will be nearly 100 bushels the spring and rolled, and so prepared out on the field, or putting it on the of shelled grain per acre. To grow as to be as free from clods as possible. manure pile. This use of wheat straw maximum crops of corn, then, it is only I find it best to plant in ridges, which will make it pay largely for the cost necessary to grow one ear upon a stalk, should be about three and a half feet of bedding. Fifteen or twenty stock and ears of such a size that a hundred from center to center, and about four- hogs are enough to bed together. A of them will make a bushel of grain. The plants should be dropped but a middle, adjoining the partition. Such 100 bushels to the acre should be conshort distance ahead of the planters, a house will comfortably accommodate sidered as something almost impossible forty shoats; and if their house be kept to be obtained .- Am. Agriculturist. clean, they will naturally occupy both

Oil the Harness Now.

case-knife, then wash clean in warm I have found this the fastest and water in which a little castile soap has which is the best thing for the purpose, a sponge or a woolen cloth. A mod-The proper performance of this is of erate quantity should be used; and, if the greatest importance; without it, all it does not soften the leather enough, by far the cheapest, never to allow better than to put on a great deal at the weeds to get a start; as soon after ev- once. Care should be taken to obtain plement, be it rake, hoe, plow or har. Neat's foot is the very best kind of oil as they have germinated, when the Growing Cucumbers for Pickles. least stirring and a half hour's sun I find cucumbers a paying crop when grown for pickles, and sold either besides of the ridges at one operation then mark one way four feet apart, for breakfast. with a steel harrow made to fit the letting the plow run as deep as the LETTUCE SALAD.-Most housekeep ridges and drawn by two horses. The ground was plowed. I then put a shovspace at the bottom between the ridges elful of good barnyard manure where but sour cream from sloppered milk is cleaned by one passage of the shovel each hill is wanted, say four feet apart, and sugar, added to the lettuce after it plow-thus there is only a narrow and then thoroughly mix with the soil, is cut up fine, makes a most delicious strip on the top of the ridges to be making the hills about two inches such workings are about all that can ground. I plant about the middle of one teaspoonful soda, two teaspoonfuls

Gentleman.

About Sick Animals. Nearly all sick animals become so by improper feeding, in the first place. Bay rum is a useful, agreeable and Nine cases out of ten the digestion is inexpensive application to the scalp. wrong. Charcoal is the most efficient Everybody should use it, so we will and rapid corrective. It will cure a can be purchased anywhere, and at a majority of cases, if properly adminis- small cost: Take oil of bay, ten fluid tered. An example of its use: The drams; oil of pimento, one fluid dram; hired man came in with the intelli- acetic ether, two fluid ounces; alcohol gence that one of the finest cows was three gallons; water, two and a half gence that one of the finest cows was yery sick, and a kind neighbor proit carefully, when you will have a suManufacturer of every description of Woole posed the usual drugs and poisons. perior article of bay rum, better than Goods. The owner being ill, and unable to ex- can be purchased at an extravagant amine the cow, concluded that the price, already prepared. be broken off from the vines, sorted trouble came from overcating, and or money on paper shades. If there are dered a teacup of pulverized charcoal no shutters get shades of dark, heavy given in water. It was mixed, placed Holland, or in oil, if there are shutters. in a junk bottle, the head held up. White muslin on rollers are the best. ward, and water and charcoal poured To the cornice of the window may be downward. In five minutes improve-terial to match the mantel and brackment was visible, and in a few hours ets; it may be well to add that lambrethe animal was in the pasture quietly quins should be lined, as the sun would A correspondent of the Cincinnati cating grass. Another instance of equal otherwise soon fade the material. The Gazette writes: First, as to breeding success occurred with a young heifer addition of lace or gauze curtains is a matter of fancy. In a room of comsows. They should, as a general rule, which had become badly bloated by mon use, they are often of more trouble be kept by themselves, and where they eating green apples after a hard wind. than worth; moreover, anything that can have a good range. Sufficient ex- The bloat was so severe that the sides keeps out the sun and light should not ercise seems essential to their progeny. Were almost as hard as a barrel.

Matured sows have better and Theold remody solventian the sides be patronized. It is a great mistake to keep a room in profound darkness Matured sows have better and The old remedy, saleratus, was tried for any reason. stronger pigs than gilts, and should be for correcting the acidity. But the atseparated from young sows. And for tempt to put it down always caused cellent application for cuts, when the this reason, a yearling past or a two-a teacupful of fresh powdered charcoal the same kind. One or two leaves

Thinning Corn.

Prof. Roberts, of the Cornell University, made some experiments in tial to her growth and perfect devel- growing corn upon the college farm last season, the results of which are valuable. Every farmer should have a hog- He planted three plats of three-sixhouse for hogs. They should be put teenths of an acre each with corn, and into it about the 1st of December, and thinned the hills in one lot to three taken out the last of March or 1st of stalks, another to four stalks to a hill: April. The hog-house should be well the third was not thinned. The first ventilated, and have a tight roof by plat yielded at the rate of 160 bushels, all means; for, without it and a good the second 125 bushels, and the third hog-house may be twenty feet long In view of this, it is strange that, with and eight feet wide, and divided in the so prolific a grain as corn, a yield of

A Particular Hen. Capt. Jacob W. Dobois has a hen of the golden pheasant breed which is very A good harness is costly, but if prop- particular as to her place of laying. plant with his left hand, pushes the erly used and cared for will last a good She always comes in the house and trowel into the earth in a slanting di- many years. If neglected, it will soon makes for a certain closet, where she rection, opens a hole by a drawing and need repairs, and in a short time be- arranges a nest, quietly deposits her lifting motion, opening a space about come utterly worthless. In caring for egg, and goes off with a happy, conan inch wide, thrusts the plant in with a harness, one great point is to see that tented little cackle. If she finds the the left hand, withdraws the trowel it is kept suitably oiled. A work har- doors and windows closed, she will walk around from one to the other until she attracts some one's attention and is admitted. When she comes into the house she behaves in the most circumspect manner, like a well bred fowl, as she is, and never says anything to anybody, or gets in any one's way. The hen has a mate in a little rooster, proud in her companionship. - Kingston (N. Y.) Freeman.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS,

VINEGAR PIE.—One teacup of moasses, one of sugar, half a cup of good vinegar. Thicken with flour, or an egg, and then bake it with two crusts.

To remove old paint, cover with a wash of three parts quick limestone, slacked in water, to which one part pearl-ash is added. Allow the coating to remain for sixteen hours, when the paint may be scraped off.

GERMAN TOAST .-- To on well, add one cup sweet milk or cream; ridges are made by a machine built fore or after salting—price per hundred season with a little salt and pepper. for the purpose, hence all are alike, the same in either case. I plow as milk to moisten, and fry in butter on which enables me to cultivate both deep as two horses can pull the plow, a griddle. This is an extra nice dish ers use vinegar, vinegar and sugar, or vinegar and meat gravy for lettuce, and healthy salad.

cleaned by hand labor. Two or three higher than the general surface of the flour, three cups sugar, one cup water, SPONGE CAKE.—Six eggs, four cups cream of tartar; flavor with lemon. Beat the eggs and sugar together until very light, then add soda dissolved in water, and the cream of tartar mixed thoroughly with the flour.

For table furnishing, glass is now more fashionable than silver, and plain white china is quite out of fashion. Minton ware—an English china—with surface in broad ornamented bands of chocolate brown, is much in vogue; sells from $400 to $800.—Cor. Country the majolica hues and designs, plates covered with leaves, birds, flowers. landscapes, beasts, and fishes—with cake, fruit and desert plates-all odd, unique devices seem to be the demand of to-day.

added a lambrequin in color and ma-cicatrized in a very short time.

WM. F. GREGORY.

(County Judge.) ATTORNEY AT LAW.

HARTFORD, KY. Prompt attention given to the collection claims. Office in the courthouse.

E. F. STROTHER.

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

HARTFORD, KENTUCKY. Will practice in all the courts of Ohio counts and the circuit courts of adjoining counties.

OFFICE up stairs over J. W. Lewis old stand.

JOHN O'FLAHERTY.

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

HARTFORD, KY.

Collections Promptly Attended to Office on Market street, over Mauzy's tin

W. N. SWEENEY,

FOGLE & SWEENEY.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice their profession in Ohio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals. Office on Market street, near courthouse.

F. P. MORGAN. MORGAN & WEDDING. ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

HARTFORD, KY. (Office west of courthouse over Hardwick J Nall's store.

Will practice in inferior and superior courts

of this commonwealth
Special attention given to cases in bank ruptey.
F. P. Morgan is also examiner, and wil take depositions correctly—will be ready to oblige all parties at all times.

E. C. HUBBARD.

WALKER & HUBBARD,

ATTOR'NEYS AT LAW.

AND REAL ESTATE AGENTS. HARTFORD, KENTUCKY.

nol la

HENRY D. MCHENRY, SAM. E. HILL. MCHENRY & HILL

ATTORNEYS& COUNSELLORS AT LA V

HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice in Ohio and adjoining counties Will practice in Onto and any and and in the Court of Appeals of Kentucky.

nol 1y.

JOHN C. TOWNSEND.

(Formerly County Judge,)

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice in all the courts of Ohio count and the circuit courts of the 5th judicial district. Bu iness solicited and prompt attentio

JOHN P. BARRETT,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

and Real Estate Agent, HARTFORD, KENTUCKY.

Prompt attention given to the collection of claims. Will buy, sell, tease, or reat lands or mineral privileges on reasonable terms. Will write deeds, mortgages, leases, &c., and at-tend to listing and paying taxes on lands beonging to non-regidents.

ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY

LIVERPOOL

Security and Indemnity. CAPITAL, -$10,000,000 GOLD. Cash Assets, over $12,000,000 Gold. CASH ASSETS IN U. S., $1,837,984 GOLD.

ses paid without discount, refer to 12th con-dition of Company's policy. BARBEE & CASTLEMAN, General Agents,

BARRETT & BRO., Agents, HARTFORD, KY.

GREEN RIVER

WOOLEN MILLS

JAMES CATE,

My mill has been enlarged and improved making the capacity three times greater than last season. We also have a full set of

Clote Dressing Machinery.

For Cassimeres, Tweeds, &c. and are manufacturing a superior article of

PLAID, TWILLED AND PLAIN FLANNEL. BLANKETS. BALMORAL SKIRTS, CASSIMERES, TWEEDS,

Stocking Yarn, &c.

We have large and superior Wool Carding Machinery, and warrant all our work. Goods manufactured by the yard, or in ex-Highest market price paid in cash for wool.

GRANGERS

Rumsey, McLean Co., Ky.

GEO. KLEIN.

GEO. KLEIN & BRO. HARTFORD, KY.,

Dealers in house furnishing good, for general kitchen and table use. hand, the celebrated We keep constantly on

ARIZONA COOKING STOVE,

Seven sizes for either coal or wood. House-keepers are delighted with its superior cooking and baking. It has no equal anywhere. Call and see for yourself.

Cancer and Sore Eyes Cured.

Those afflicted with Sore Eyes or Cancer would do well to call on D. L. GREGORY, Todd's Point, Ky., who has been very successful in the treatment of these diseases. He can cure any cancer- on the surface, if taken in in time. He treats upon the system of "no cure no pay." Give him a trial. no17 em

NOTICE.

Wanted to borrow $3,000 for two or three years, for which ten per cent. interest will be paid—payable semi-annually—note to be due if interest is not promptly paid, and will secure the lender by a mortgage on real estate; and as an additional security will give him to hold as collateral real estate lien notes worth at least $6,000. Address "MONEY," care HERALD office, Hartford, Ky.

J. F. YAGER,

Sale and Livery Stable, HARTFORD, KY. I desire to inform the citizens of Hartford and vicinity that I am prepared to furnish Sad-dle and Harness Stock, Buggiesand conveyances of all kinds on the most reasonable terms. Horses taken to feed or board by the day, week or month. A liberal share of patronage solici-

FOR SALE.

A government land warrant for services ren-ered in the war of 1812, for 160 acres of land,

REASONABLE PRICE.

For further information apply to J. M. Rogers, Beaver Dam, Ky., or John P. Barrett Hertford, Ky.

Plow Stocking

GENERAL WOODWORK.

The undersigned would respectfully announce to the citizens of Ohio county, they are now prepared to do all kinds of WOODWORK at their new shop in Hartford. They have secured the services of a competent workman to STOCK PLOWS.

and they guarantee satisfaction, both as to work and PRICES, in all cases. They will WAGONS AND BUGGIES, and will make and furnish COFFINS AND BURIAL CASES

at the lowest possible prices. Call and see us before engaging your work elsewhe PATRONAGE SOLICITED, and satisfaction guaranteed. By close applie tion to business we hope to merit the support of our friends, MAUZY & HURT. of our friends, Jan. 20, 1875.

JAS A. THOMAS, .

JAS. A. THOMAS & CO.

Dealers in staple and fancy

HARTFORD, KY.

DRY GOODS.

is their design to make this journal occupy the field in the Western States open for a Notions, Fancy Goods, Clothing, Boots and Cheap, Newsy and Sound Democratic Paper, giving all the news, Political, Religious, Scien-Shoes, Hats and Caps. A large assortment of these goods kept constantly on hand, and will be sold at the very lowest cash price.

AGAIN!

LOUISVILLE WEEKLY

COURIER-JOURNAL Continues for the present year its liberal ar rangement, whereby, on the 31st of December, 1875, it will distribute impartially among its

$10,000

in presents, comprising greenbacks and nearly one thousand useful and beautiful articles. The Courier-Journal is a long-established live, wide-awake, progressive, newsy, bright and spicy paper.

No other paper offers such inducements to subscribers and club agents. Circulars with full particulars and specimen copies sent free rms, $2 00 a year and liberal offers to clubs Daily edition $12. Postage prepaid on all papers without extra charge. Address W. N, HALDEMAN, President Courier-Journal Company Louisville, Ky.

L. J. LYON. Dealer in

Groceries and Confectioneries. HARTFORD, KY. Keeps constantly on hand a large assortmen of all kinds of Groceries and Confectioneries, which he will sell low for cash, or exchange for all kinds of COUNTRY PRODUCE.

I will also pay the highest cash price for hides, sheep peles, eggs, butter, bacon, potatoes, beans, etc.

WM. T. COX. WM. GRAVES, House Carpenters.

We respectfully announce to the citizens of Hartford and Ohio county, that we are prepared to do House Carpentering, Furniture Re-pairing, and any kind of Wood-work, on short notice at reasonable terms. Shop in Mauzy's

GRAVES & COX.

JNO. M. KLEIN

JNO. P. BARRETT & CO.,

Newspaper, Book,

AND

JOB PRINTING,

Corner Court Place and Piccadilly street.

HARTFORD, KY.

JOHN P. BARRETT & CO.,

THE SAINT LOWS TIMES.

Daily, Weekly and Tre Weekly.

DEMOCRATIC PAPER IN THE WEST.

United States.

The Times Company take pleasure in antific, Social and Commercial-one whose editorial columns will be devoted to a fair discussion of the great Political questions in which the whole nation is interested, to the defense of Constitutional Democratic Government, and t wage a relentless war on any and al! parties and factions which seek to destroy or pervert

The Daily Times

Will be issued every day, except Sunday, in a folio form, containing thirty-two colums of the latest news—Foreign and Domestic. A reduc-tion in price has been made in proportion to the reduction in size.

The Sunday Times.

Will be issued regularly as a Mammoth Double sheet, containing sixty-four columns of News, Literary and select Reading, and will be fur-

Literary and select Keading, and will be furnished to the Daily Subscribers without extra charge. The unparalled increase of the circutation of this edition is evidence of its popularity, and no pains will be spared to make it

The Tri-Weekly Times,

bers every Wednesday, Friday and Sunday mornings. This edition is designed to supply those who have not the mail facilities to obtain the daily issues, and yet desire a paper oftener

The Weekly Times,

"Mammoth Edition," containing sixty-four columns of the latest and most important news and carefully selected reading matter of all kinds—a paper for the Farmer, the Merchant,

the Student, the Politician and the General

Reader. At the end of the present year the circulation of this edition, at the present circulation of this edition, at the present rate of increase, will not be less than 100,000

TERMS-POSTAGE PREPAID.

worthy of public confidence and patronage.

A four-page sheet, will be mailed to subs than once a week.

Job Printers.

Hartford, Ky.

L. F. WOERNER,

HARTFORD, KENTUCKY Repairing neatly and promptly done.

REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMP-ION OF AMERICAN ART TASTE

PROSPECTUS FOR 1875—EIGHTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA,

ISSUED MONTHLY. A MAGNIFICANT CONCEPTION WON-

DERFULLY CARRIED OUT.

The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successive failures which have so invariably followed each attempt in this country to establish an art journal, did not prove the indifference of the people of America to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once rallied with enthusiasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triumph—THE ALDINE.

The Aldine while issued with all of the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interests characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest collection of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of The Aldine will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class. The Aldine is a unique cod appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class. The Aldine is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes, for ten times its cost; and then, there is the chromo, besides!

The national feature of The Aldine must be taken in no narrow sense. True art is cosmopolitan. While The Aldine is a strictly Ameriran institution, it does not confine itself to the peroduction of native art. Its mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative art taste, one that will discriminate on grounds of intrinsic merit. Thus, while pleading before the patrons of The Aldine, as a leading characteristic, the productions of the most noted American artists, attention will always be given to specimens from foreign masters, giving subscribers all the pleasure and instruction obtainable from home

Every subsciber for 1875 will receive a beau-tiful portrait, in oil colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so will be welcome to every home. Everybody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed so true to the life, that it seems the veritable presence of the animal itself. The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage tells that his own Newfoundland dog (the finest in Brooklyn) barks at it. Although so natural, no one who sees this premium chrome will have the slightest fear of All orders promptly executed. Special at tention given to orders by mail. Write for price list. Address being bitten.

Besides the chromo every advance subscribe to The Aldine for 1875 is constituted a member and entitled to the privileges of

THE ALDINE ART UNION.

stamp. TERMS:

One Subscription, entitling to The Aldine one year, the Chromo, and the Art Union, THE LIVEST, CHEAPEST AND BEST The Largest Weekly Published in the

(No charge for postage.) Specimen copies of The Aldine, 50 cents The Aldine will hereafter be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced o nouncing to the people of the Great West that they are now publishing the Largest, Cheapest and Best Democratic Paper in the country. It

> SUTTON, President. CANVASSERS WANTED. Any person wishing to act permanently as a local canvasser, will receive full and prompt in-

> Unquestionably the best Sustained Work of

ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press. The ever increasing circulation of this ex-cellent monthly proves its continued adapta-tion to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penewhen we think into how many nomes it pentrates every month, we must consider it as entertainers, of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won no by appeal to stupid prejudices or deprayed tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which thir Magazine possesses carriety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and

The character which thir Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good, and not evil, all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle

TERMS. Postage Free to all Subscribers in the United Harper's Magazine, one year... $4 00 inclunes prepayment of U. S. postoge by the publisher.

by the publisher.
Subscriptions to Harper's Magazine, Weekly, and Bazar, to one address for one year, $10 00: or, two of Harper's Periodicals, to one address for one year, $7 09: postage free.
An extra copy of either the Magazine, Weeky, or Bazar, will be supplied gratis for every club of five subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or six copies for $20 00, without extra copy, postage free.

Daily, 7 copies per week, single copy, $8 00 per year. In clubs of five or more $7 50. Sunday Times, single copy, $2 00 per year. In c ubs of five or more $1 75.

Tri-Weekly Times, $4 00 per year. In clubs of five or more $3 75.
Weekly Times, $1 50 per year. In clubs of five or more $1 25. Ten per cent. Commission allowed on above rates to those who will act as agents. Money can be deducted when subscriptions are sent. All money should be sent by Post Office Order, Draft, or Express to the address of THE TIMES COMPANY.

St. Long. Mo. Back numbers can be supplied at any time.

attention will always be given to speciment from foreign masters, giving subscribers all the pleasure and instruction obtainable from home or foreign sources.

The artistic illustration of American scenery,

The artistic illustration of American scenery, original with The Aldine is an important feature, and its magnificent plates are of a size more appropriate to the satisfactory treatment of details than can be afforded by any inferior page. The judicious interspersion of landscape, marine, figure and animal subjects, sustain an unabated interest, impossible where the scope of the work confines the artist too closely to a single style of subject. The literature of The Aldine is a light and graceful accompaniment, worthy of the artistic features, with only such technical disquisitions as do not interfere with the popular interest of the work.

PREMIUM FOR 1875.

"Man's Unselfish Friend"

The Union owns the originals of all The Aldine pictures, which with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members. To every series of 5,000 subscribers 100 different pieces, valued at over $2,500, are distributed as soon as the series is full, and the area of each series as made, are to be pubawards of each series as made, are to be pub-lished in the next succeding issue of The Al-dine. This feature only applies to subscribers who pay for one year in advance. Full partic-ulars in circular sent on application inclosing a Six Dollars per annum, In Advance.

canvasser, without responsibility to the pub-lisher, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac simile signature of Jas.

formation by applying to THE ALDINE COMPANY. 58 Maiden-Lane, New York.

the kind in the World. HARPER'S MAGAZINE

extra copy: postage free.